

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Charmaine L. Wijeyesinghe
1. The Day George Floyd Died: Change That Goes beyond Police Reform	13
William E. Cross Jr.
2. Who Gets to Choose? Racial Identity and the Politics of Choice	36
Marc P. Johnston-Guerrero
3. Naming the Problem: Epistemic Violence, Cognitive Maps, Relationships of Power, and Resistance in National Narratives about Belonging	56
Nancy López
4. Queer and Trans* People of Color Worldmaking as Subject Formation and Identity Development	83
Reginald A. Blockett and Kristen A. Renn
5. Race and Power in Transracial and Transnational Adoption: Historical Legacies, Current Issues, and Future Challenges	104
JaeRan Kim
6. How Did Black Folks Become Indians? What Lived Experiences Say about Belonging, Culture, and Racial Mixture in Native America	126
Robert Keith Collins
7. Racializing Faith: The Intersections of Racism and (White) Christian Hegemony	148
Kameelah Mu'Min Rashad and D-L Stewart
8. The Dangers of Being Too Certain: How White Desires for Racial Innocence Hinder Meaningful Racial Justice Work	172
Zak Foste

9. Islam and Hip Hop in Black America: Oral Tradition as Critical Liberatory Praxis	192
Amer F. Ahmed
10. Understanding and Responding to Resistance When Intersectionality Is Utilized to Address Race, Racism, and Racial Justice Work	216
Charmaine L. Wijeyesinghe
11. Embracing the Complexities of Race, Racism, and Social Justice in Changing Times	240
Raechele L. Pope, Amy L. Reynolds, and Chazz Robinson
Acknowledgments	267
About the Editor	269
About the Contributors	271
Index	277