

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Jane K. Stoevers
PART I. THE POLITICS OF SAFETY AND JUSTICE
1. The Coupling and Decoupling of Safety and Crime Control: An Anti-Violence Movement Timeline	15
Mimi E. Kim
2. The Politicization of Domestic Violence	38
Deborah M. Weissman
3. Empowerment Politics and Access to Justice	62
Elizabeth L. MacDowell
PART II. MULTIPLE SYSTEMS, STANDARDS, AND DILEMMAS
4. Battering Court Syndrome: A Structural Critique of “Failure to Protect”	91
Alisa Bierria and Colby Lenz
5. Parental Love and Purposeful Violence	119
Cynthia Godsoe
6. Specializing Justice for Youth and Families: Intervening in Family Violence or Expanding the Carceral Net?	151
Amy M. Magnus
PART III. INTERSECTIONAL NEEDS FOR SAFETY AND JUSTICE
7. Feminist Response to Campus Sexual Assault in the Republican Era: Crime Logic, Intersectional Public Health, and Restorative Justice	171
Donna Coker

8. A Fraught Pairing: Immigrant Survivors of Intimate Partner Violence and Law Enforcement	202
Natalie Nanasi
PART IV. MILITARIZATION, FIREARMS, AND THE FAMILY
9. Politics, Safety, and Officer-Involved Intimate Partner Violence	227
Leigh Goodmark
10. Playing Politics with Firearms and Family Violence	246
Jane K. Stoevers
11. Preventing Ordinary and Extraordinary Violence	272
Mary D. Fan
PART V. MOVING FORWARD WITH A CRITICAL LENS
12. Is Domestic Violence Politicized Too Narrowly?	303
Jamie R. Abrams
13. Harm Reduction in the Domestic Violence Context	332
Courtney Cross
14. Developing a National Plan of Action on Violence against Women and Gender Violence: A Human Rights Approach	362
Caroline Bettinger-López
About the Editor	379
About the Contributors	381
Index	387