

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Jenell Johnson, Kelly E. Happe, and Marina Levina
PART I. CATEGORICAL UNDERSTANDINGS
1. Governing Sexual Health: Bridging Biocitizenship and Sexual Citizenship	21
Steven Epstein
2. Carceral Biocitizenship: The Rhetorics of Sovereignty in Incarceration	51
Sarah Burgess and Stuart J. Murray
3. Epigenetics and the Biocitizen: Body Temporality and Political Agency in the Postgenomic Age	70
Kelly E. Happe
PART II. MODES OF GOVERNANCE
4. Chronic Citizenship: Community, Choice, and Queer Controversy	95
Jeffrey A. Bennett
5. The Necropolitical Functions of Biocitizenship: The Sixth International AIDS Conference and the U.S. Ban on HIV-Positive Immigrants	117
Karma R. Chávez
6. Exploiting Vulnerable Citizens: Drug Testing and the Mentally Ill	133
Carl Elliott and Emma Bedor Hiland

PART III. ACTIVISM AND RESISTANCE

7. Feeding Hunger-Striking Prisoners: Biopolitics and Impossible Citizenship 155
Nayan Shah
8. Biocitizenship on the Ground: Health Activism and the Medical Governance Revolution 178
Merlin Chowkwanyun
9. The Rise of Health Activism: The Importance of Social Class to Biosociality 204
Celia Roberts and Richard Tutton
10. Patient Activists: Experience with Public Engagement 222
Heather Aspell, Julie Cerrone, and Kirsten Schultz

PART IV. BEYOND THE BIO-CITIZEN

11. Nonhuman Biocitizens: Lab Animals, Cruel Optimism, and the Politics of Death 233
Marina Levina
12. The Citizens of Incubators: Vessels of Care and Control 255
Oron Catts and Ionat Zurr
13. The Supra-Cyborg: The Rise of Global Governing Corporatocracies 274
Celeste M. Condit
- Acknowledgments* 307
- About the Contributors* 309
- Index* 317