

CONTENTS

Foreword	xiii
Suad Joseph
Introduction: Advancing Women's Rights in the Arab World	1
Rita Stephan and Mounira M. Charrad
PART I. WHAT THEY FIGHT FOR	13
1. Barefoot Feminist Classes: A Revelation of Being, Doing, and Becoming	15
Rula Quawas
2. The Labor Strikes That Catalyzed the Revolution in Egypt	28
Nadine Naber
3. From a Smear Campaign to the Kuwaiti Parliament: My Resolve Persists Despite Rumors	40
Aseel Alawadhi
4. Palestinian Queerness and the Orientalist Paradigm	44
Amal Amireh
5. "With All My Force . . .": Men against Domestic Violence in Lebanon	50
Lina Abirafeh and Ghida Anani
6. "Ne Touche Pas Mes Enfants!": A Woman's Campaign against Pedophilia in Morocco	53
Ginger Feather
7. Two Nonviolence Campaigns Initiated by Women in Syria	58
Mohja Kahf

8. Refusing the Backseat: Women as Drivers of the Yemeni Uprisings Aminah Ali Kandar	68
PART II. WHAT THEY BELIEVE	83
9. “Women Are Complete, Not Complements”: Terminology in the Writing of the New Constitution of Tunisia Mounira M. Charrad and Amina Zarrugh	85
10. A Patriotic Christian Woman in the Syrian Parliament Maria Saadeh	96
11. Iraqi Women’s Agency: From Political Authoritarianism to Sectarianism and Islamist Militancy Nadje Al-Ali	98
12. Hidden Voices, Hidden Agendas: Qubaysiat Women’s Group in Syria Sana Sayed	107
13. The Egyptian Revolution and the Feminist Divide Samaa Gamie	117
14. Algerian Feminists Navigate Authoritarianism Maro Youssef	129
15. Failing the Masses in Syria: Buthaina Shabaan and the Public Intellectual Crisis Asaad Alsaleh	135
16. Time to Seize the Opportunity: A Call for Action from Sudan Fatma Osman Ibnouf	143
PART III. HOW THEY EXPRESS AGENCY	147
17. Long before the Arab Spring: Arab Women’s Cyberactivism through AWSA United Rita Stephan	149

18. Aliaa Elmahdy, Nude Protest, & Transnational Feminist Body Politics	161
Karina Eileraas Karakuş
19. Sensing Queer Activism in Beirut: Protest Soundscapes as Political Dissent	173
Nisrine Chaer
20. On the Contrary: Negation as Resistance and Reimagining in the Work of Bahia Shehab	185
Andy Young
21. Half Syrian Sufi Blogger: Faith and Activism in the Virtual Public Space	198
Michela Cerruti
22. The Light in Her Eyes : A Woman Is a School. Teach Her and You Teach a Generation: An Interview with Filmmakers Julia Meltzer and Laura Nix	204
Nurulsyahirah Taha
23. Writing Lebanese Feminist History: Rose Ghurayyib's Editorial Letters in Al-Raida Journal from 1976 to 1985	208
Nicole Khoury
24. Um Sahar, the Adeni Woman Leader in al-Hirak Southern Independence Movement in Yemen	217
Kevin A. Davis
PART IV. HOW THEY USE SPACE TO MOBILIZE	223
25. Marching with Revolutionary Women in Egypt: A Participatory Journal	225
Margot Badran
26. Memories of Martyrs: Disappearance and Women's Claims against State Violence in Libya	233
Amina Zarrugh

27. Mapping the Egyptian Women's Anti-Sexual Harassment Campaigns Theresa Hunt	245
28. A Village Rises in the First Intifada: International Women's Day, March 8, 1988 Manal A. Jamal	259
29. Revolutionary Graffiti and Cairene Women: Performing Agency through Gaze Aversion Soumia Bardhan and Karen A. Foss	267
30. Celebrating Women's Day in Baghdad, the City of Men Zahra Ali	283
31. Waiting for the Revolution: Women's Perceptions from Upper and Lower Rural Egypt Lorenzo Kamel and Maha Ezzat Elkholy	290
32. New Media/New Feminism(s): The Lebanese Women's Movement Online and Offline Nelia Hyndman-Rizk	299
PART V. HOW THEY ORGANIZE	311
33. Genesis of Gender and Women's Studies at the University of Fez, Morocco Fatima Sadiqi	313
34. My Revolution! Dina Wahba	318
35. Women's Political Participation in Bahrain Marwa Shalaby and Ariana Marnicio	321
36. Strategies of Nonviolent Resistance: Syrian Women Subverting Dominant Paradigms Manal al-Natour	330
37. Driving Campaigns: Saudi Women Negotiating Power in the Public Space Namie Tsujigami	339

38. Reclaiming Space(s): Kuwaiti Women in the Karamat Watan Protests Emanuela Buscemi	348
39. “The Factory of the Revolution”: Women’s Activism in the Syrian Uprisings Layla Saleh	354
40. Arab American Women and the Arab Spring: An Interview with Summer Nasser Emily Regan Wills	363
Acknowledgments	367
About the Editors	369
About the Contributors	371
Index	383

