

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Contributors	ix
Introduction	1
Regina Cortina
1 Indigenous Intercultural Bilingual Education in Latin America: Widening Gaps between Policy and Practice	19
Luis Enrique López
2 Partnerships to Promote the Education of Indigenous Citizens	50
Regina Cortina
3 Intercultural Bilingual Education in the Andes: Political Change, New Challenges and Future Directions	74
Bret Gustafson
4 The Tension between Western and Indigenous Knowledge in Intercultural Bilingual Education in Ecuador	98
Carmen Martínez Novo
5 Indigenous Students as Graduates of Higher Education Institutions in Mexico	124
Sylvia Schmelkes
6 Beyond Cultural Recognition: Training Teachers for Intercultural Bilingual Education in Guatemala	148
María José Aragón

7	Indigenous Leaders and the Challenges of Decolonization in Bolivia Luz Jiménez Quispe	169
8	Political Discourse and School Practice in Multilingual Peru Laura A. Valdiviezo	187
	Author Index	211
	Subject Index	213