

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Preface: Autobiographical Origins of This Book	xi
Introduction	xvii
What is This Book About?	xvii
Who Might be Interested in Reading The Book?	xix
What Contribution is Made by This Book?	xix
How is The Book Organised?	xxiv
Part 1: Background
Chapter 1: The Eastern Cape, Then and Now	3
Indigenous People and Early Settlers	4
Struggles for Power and Territory	9
Farm Labour, White-Owned Agricultural Land and Segregation	12
Language Issues and Multilingualism	18
Prominent White Eastern Cape Multilinguals in History and Literature	20
Black Children's Lives	25
Introduction to the Four Participants	27
Chapter 2: Life History, Identity and Language Acquisition	37
Narrative Research and Life History Methodology	37
Post-Structuralist Theory: Power, Discourse and Identity	44
Race, Whiteness and Identity	48
Identity in Time and Space	52
Language Learning as Participation	55

Part 2: The Life Histories

Chapter 3: Childhood: Intimacy and Separation	67
isiXhosa-Speaking Caregivers	70
isiXhosa-Speaking Peers and Other Adults	74
The Move to School	91
Conclusion	100
Chapter 4: Rites of Passage: Paths Diverge	102
The Circumcision Ritual	103
University	109
Military Service	113
Conclusion	121
Chapter 5: Adult Life and Work: Language and Power	123
Riaan: ‘Consequent but respectful’ (Ri.68)	124
George: ‘Fishing, hunting, (...) outdoors’ (G3.83)	134
Brendon: Closing the ‘circle’ (B1.30)	140
Ernie: ‘A white Madiba’ (E2.44)	148
Conclusion	152
Chapter 6: Identity Across Spaces: White Discourse and Hybrid Space	155
Boundaries	157
Polarised Space	166
Hybrid Space	182
Conclusion	187
Chapter 7: Conclusion	190
Postscript	201
Appendices	205
Appendix 1: Timeline of Events in the Eastern Cape (and South Africa)	205
Appendix 2: Historical Events and the Lives of the Participants	209
Appendix 3: Interview Schedules (Initial Plan)	220
Interview 2 with the four participants	221

Interview 3 with the four participants	230
Appendix 4: Stages in Data Analysis	233
Appendix 5: Military Service in South Africa, 1957–1994	238
Appendix 6: Some Background on Firearms in South Africa	239
References	241
Index	253

