

Acknowledgements

I thank everyone who helped me directly or indirectly to put this book together. Without academic supervision and help from editors, proof readers, peers, family and friends this project would not have come to fruition. Among all the people involved, my foremost and sincere gratitude goes to Ingrid Piller. She encouraged and supervised me during my research and writing process. Her feedback and comments were invaluable.

I also want to thank Macquarie University for supporting my research and www.languageonthemove.com for providing me with consistently interesting input and such a stimulating atmosphere.

Apart from academic backing, this book would not have been possible without the openness and support of the research site, Fritzkidz. Thank you, Fritzkidz, for letting me in! Thanks for finding time to talk to me, to reply to my emails, for your trust and collaboration. A special thanks also to all the educators who made the time to talk to me during their precious breaks, before or after their shifts. Similarly, I would like to express my gratitude to all parents who completed the questionnaire and who met with me – sometimes more than once. The support from all of you is very much appreciated.

Last but not least, my gratitude goes to my wonderful husband and children. It is from them that I draw my strength, energy and endless joy.