

Contents

Contributors	vii
Bilingualism for All or Just for the Rich and White? Introducing a Raciolinguistic Perspective to Dual Language Education Nelson Flores, Amelia Tseng and Nicholas Subtirelu	1
1 The Intersectionality of Neoliberal Classing with Raciolinguistic Marginalization in State Dual Language Policy: A Call for Locally Crafted Programs M. Garrett Delavan, Juan A. Freire and Verónica E. Valdez	19
2 Common Threads: Language Policy, Nation, Whiteness, and Privilege in Iowa's First Dual Language Program Crissa Stephens	40
3 Dual Language and the Erasure of Emergent Bilinguals Labeled As Disabled (EBLADs) María Cioè-Peña	63
4 Dueling Discourses in Dual Language Schools: Multilingual 'Success for All' versus the Academic 'Decline' of Black Students Lisa M. Dorner, Jeong-Mi Moon, Edwin Nii Bonney and Alexandria Otis	88
5 Centering Raciolinguistic Ideologies in Two-Way Dual Language Education: The Politicized Role of Parents in Mediating their Children's Bilingualism Sera J. Hernandez	111
6 Helping or Being Helped? The Influence of Raciolinguistic Ideologies on Parental Involvement in Dual Immersion Jazmín A. Muro	132
7 Hebrew Dual Language Bilingual Education: The Intersection of Race, Language and Religion Sharon Avni and Kate Menken	156
8 Raciolinguistic Positioning of Language Models in a Korean-English Dual Language Immersion Classroom Jin Sook Lee, Wona Lee and Hala Sun	177

9	The Black and Brown Search for Agency: African American and Latinx Children's Plight to Bilingualism in a Two-Way Dual Language Program	199
	Claudia G. Cervantes-Soon, Enrique David Degollado and Idalia Nuñez
10	Who Gets to Count as Emerging Bilinguals? Adapting a Holistic Writing Rubric for All	220
	Margarita Gómez and Kristina Collins
11	One White Student's Journey Through Six Years of Elementary Schooling: Uncovering Whiteness and Privilege in Two-Way Bilingual Education	244
	Suzanne García-Mateus, Kimberly A. Strong, Deborah K. Palmer and Dan Heiman
	Conclusion: Bilingualism for All? Revisiting the Question	266
	Nelson Flores, Nicholas Subtirelu and Amelia Tseng
	Afterword: What is the Magic Sauce?	271
	Guadalupe Valdés
	Index	279