

Contents

Contributors	ix
Foreword: Linguistic Citizenship – Unlabelled Forerunners and Recent Trajectories Kenneth Hyltenstam and Caroline Kerfoot	xvii
1 Introduction Quentin Williams, Ana Deumert and Tommaso M. Milani	1
Part 1: Linguistic Citizenship as Theory and Practice of Multilingualism
2 The Myth of Orderly Multilingualism Lionel Wee	19
3 Linguistic Citizenship as a Decolonial Lens on Southern Multilingualisms and Epistemologies Kathleen Heugh	35
4 Linguistic Citizenship and the Questions of Transformation and Marginality Ben Rampton, Melanie Cooke and Sam Holmes	59
Part 2: Multilingual Narratives and Linguistic Citizenship
5 ‘I Am My Own Coloured’: Navigating Language and Race in Post-Apartheid South Africa Lauren van Niekerk, Keshia R. Jansen and Zannie Bock	83
6 Linguistic Citizenship and Non-Citizens: Of Utopias and Dystopias Marcelyn Oostendorp	102
Part 3: Linguistic Citizenship for Linguistic Knowledge, Digital Activism and Popular Culture
7 The Travels of Semilingualism: Itineraries of Ire, Impact and Infamy Linus Salö and David Karlander	121

8	Turbulent Twitter and the Semiotics of Protest at an Ex-Model C School Amy Hiss and Amiena Peck	140
9	Remixing Linguistic Citizenship Quentin Williams	163
Part 4: Postscripts: Taking Linguistic Citizenship towards New Directions
10	WEIRD Psycholinguistics Emanuel Bylund	183
11	The Sociolinguistics of Responsibility Don Kulick	201
12	Afterword: Seeding(ceding) Linguistically – New Roots for New Routes Christopher Stroud	218
	Index	230