

Crisis and Disaster Management for Tourism

ASPECTS OF TOURISM

Series Editors: Chris Cooper (Nottingham University Business School, UK), C. Michael Hall (University of Canterbury, New Zealand) and Dallen J. Timothy (Arizona State University, USA)

Aspects of Tourism is an innovative, multifaceted series, which comprises authoritative reference handbooks on global tourism regions, research volumes, texts and monographs. It is designed to provide readers with the latest thinking on tourism worldwide and push back the frontiers of tourism knowledge. The volumes are authoritative, readable and user-friendly, providing accessible sources for further research. Books in the series are commissioned to probe the relationship between tourism and cognate subject areas such as strategy, development, retailing, sport and environmental studies.

Full details of all the books in this series and of all our other publications can be found on <http://www.channelviewpublications.com>, or by writing to Channel View Publications, St Nicholas House, 31–34 High Street, Bristol BS1 2AW, UK.

Front cover: The photo illustrates the impact and recovery of Banda Aceh, Indonesia after the 2004 tsunami. The shipping container was dumped approximately 2 kilometres inland from the force of the tsunami. It now acts as a tourist attraction and has also become a focal point for a memorial located on the left hand side and a souvenir shop to the right. Further to the right is evidence of buildings that have not yet been rebuilt illustrating that recovery is still continuing.
