Contents

	Contributors	vii
	Acknowledgements	xii
	Preface	xiii
	Introduction	1
	Part 1: Sociocultural Developments	21
1	Negotiating Asian Identities in London and Other Gateway Cities Stephen J. Shaw	31
2	Discovering or Intruding? Guided Tours in the Ethnic District Matonge in Brussels Isabelle Cloquet and Anya Diekmann	41
3	The Potential for Roma Tourism in Hungary Anita Zátori and Melanie Smith	60
	Part 2: Community Perceptions	77
4	Reflections on Ethnic and Minority Communities as a Tool for Improving Intercultural Change in Tourism Yvette Reisinger and Omar Moufakkir	86
5	Shifting Perceptions: Negotiating Place and Space in the Israeli Desert Frontier Town of Mitzpe Ramon Joshua Schmidt	99
6	Slum Dwellers' Perceptions of Tourism in Dharavi, Mumbai Anya Diekmann and Nimit Chowdhary	112

Part 3: Visitor Experiences 127

7 Would You Be a Favela Tourist? Confronting Expectations and Moral Concerns Among Brazilian and Foreign Potential Tourists 137
Bianca Freire-Medeiros and Márcio Grijó Vilarouca

8 Chinatowns as Tourist Attractions in Australia 149
Jock Collins

Part 4: Development Policies 163

9 Ethnic Tourism in Rural China: Cultural or Economic 'Development'? 176
Nelson Graburn

10 Jewish Culture and Tourism in Budapest 188
Melanie Smith and Anita Zátori

11 Pink Tourism in Cape Town: The Development of the Post-Apartheid Gay Quarter 202
Esti Venske

Conclusions 215

References 226

Index 249