

Contents

About the Authors	ix
Foreword
Mike Grover and Colin Baker	xv
Introduction: Global and Local Connections in Educational Linguistics
Francis M. Hult and Kendall A. King	xviii

Section I: Bilingual Education and Bilingualism

Thematic Overview I: Language Policies, Multilingual Classrooms: Resonances across Continents
Marilyn Martin-Jones	3
1 Language Teacher Education and Teacher Identity
Manka Varghese	16
2 Terrorism, Nationalism and Westernization: Code Switching and Identity in Bollywood
Vinita Vaish	27
3 Making Local Practices Globally Relevant in Researching Multilingual Education
Angela Creese	41

Section II: Continua of Biliteracy

Thematic Overview II: New Literacy Studies and the Continua of Biliteracy
Brian Street	59
4 Continuing the Continua: Why Content Matters in Biliterate Citizenship Education
Ellen Skilton-Sylvester	68
5 Literacy in Two Lands: Refugee Women's Shifting Practices of Literacy and Labor
Daryl Gordon	81
6 Poetic Anthropology and the Lyric Continua between Science and Art
Melisa Cahnmann-Taylor	95

Section III: Policy and Planning for Linguistic Diversity in Education

Thematic Overview III: Unpeeling, Slicing and Stirring the Onion – Questions and Certitudes in Policy and Planning for Linguistic Diversity in Education

Teresa L. McCarty 109

7 Implementational and Ideological Spaces in Bilingual Education Policy, Practice, and Research

David Cassels Johnson 126

8 Quechua Language and Education Policy in the Peruvian Highlands

Serafin M. Coronel-Molina 140

9 An Ecological Perspective for Planning Chinese Language in the United States

Shuhan C. Wang 154

Afterword: Cooking with Nancy

Richard Ruiz 173

Index 179