

Contents

Part 1: Theory as Dialogue	1
1 Issues and Contexts	8
2 Language Interactions in the Classroom: From Coercive to Collaborative Relations of Power	31
Part 2: The Nature of Language Proficiency	53
3 Language Proficiency in Academic Contexts	57
4 Critiques of the Conversational/Academic Language Proficiency Distinction	86
5 Assessing Second Language Proficiency Among Adults: Do We Know What We Are Measuring?	112
6 Dilemmas of Inclusion: Integrating English Language Learners in Standards-Based Reform	140
Part 3: From Bilingual Education to Transformative Pedagogy	169
7 The Threshold and Interdependence Hypotheses Revisited	173
8 Research, Theory and Policy in Bilingual Education: Evaluating the Credibility of Empirical Data	201
9 Challenging the Discourse of Disempowerment Through Collaborative Dialogue	232
10 Transformative Pedagogy: Who Needs It?	246
References	284
Index	307

