

Contents

Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction	ix
Organization of the Book	xii
1 English Language Learners in United States Schools	1
Introduction	2
Diversity within the English Language Learners' School Population	3
The 'Typical' ELL Student	4
Challenges of English Language Learners in Meeting School Academic Standards	7
Linguistic and Academic Demands	8
Language Assistance Programs	10
'Struggling' English Language Learners.	12
Conclusion	17
2 English Literacy Development and English Language Learners:
A Theoretical Overview	18
Introduction.	19
The Nature of First Language Literacy and its Development.	20
The Nature of Second Language Acquisition	23
Issues Involved in Planning Instruction for English Language Learners	25
Conclusion	29

3	Moving Beyond the Transition: Struggling English Literacy Learners in the Regular/Mainstream Classroom	31
	Introduction.	32
	Varied Backgrounds, Varied Abilities, and Varied Needs.	33
	Monolingual and Bilingual Literacy Learners: Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed	35
	Emergent, Transitional, and Developmental Issues for English Literacy Learners	39
	Literacy Demands in the Upper Elementary Grades.	40
	Conclusion	42
4	Instructional Writing Strategies for Struggling English Language Learners	43
	Introduction	44
	Mediating and Scaffolding Writing Development	45
	Writing in the Disciplines: Moving Beyond Personal Experiences and Narratives	51
	Helping Students Organize Text Structures.	53
	Helping Students Organize Text Meanings	56
	Conclusion	58
5	Instructional Practices to Promote Reading Development in English Language Learners	59
	Introduction	60
	Instructional Frameworks to Scaffold English Language Learners' Reading Development	61
	Making Use of Reading Strategies to Construct Meaning	67
	Instructional Strategies to Facilitate English Language Learners' Construction of Meaning	73
	Questioning that Supports Comprehension.	80
	Promoting Reading Fluency in ELLs.	81
	Using Native Language Knowledge in English Reading	83
	Conclusion	83
6	English Literacy Across the Curriculum	84
	Introduction	85
	Integration of Language and Content	86
	Social Studies: Learning Challenges and Instructional Modifications	89
	Science: Learning Challenges and Instructional Modifications	94
	Mathematics: Learning Challenges and Instructional Modifications.	99
	Conclusion.	106

7	A Framework for Assessing English Literacy Among Struggling English Language Learners.	107
	Introduction	108
	The Assessment of English Language Learners	109
	Assessment of Literacy for Instructional Purposes	112
	A Profile of ELLs' English Language Proficiency and Development	114
	Assessing ELLs' Academic Oral Language Development	115
	Assessing Reading Development and Proficiency	118
	Assessing Academic Writing Development and Proficiency	121
	Monitoring Writing Progress Through a Portfolio	123
	Using Standardized Test Data to Inform Instruction	125
	Factors to Consider in Evaluating ELLs Achievement Through Standardized Assessment	126
	Conclusion.	130
8	Developing Collaborative Literacy Relationships with Parents	131
	Parents' Influence on Children's Literacy Development and Achievement	133
	Parents' Barriers to Effective School Involvement	136
	Strategies for Parents' Involvement in Their Children's Education	138
	Improving Parents' Involvement Through Family Literacy Programs	144
	Conclusion.	146
	Resources for Teachers of ELL Students	148
	References	150
	Index	156