

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Author Biographies 2004	viii
Part 1: Introduction	1
Introduction
Margaret R. Hawkins	3
Part 2: Sociocultural Perspectives on Language and Learning.	11
1 Learning Language as a Matter of Learning Social Languages within Discourses
James Paul Gee	13
Part 3: Sociocultural Approaches to Language Teacher Education	33
2 Re-sourcing Resources: Pedagogy, History and Loss in a Johannesburg Classroom
Pippa Stein	35
3 Transforming the Discourses of Teaching and Learning: Rippling Waters and Shifting Sands
Jerri Willett and Sarah Miller	52
4 Social Apprenticeships Through Mediated Learning in Language Teacher Education
Margaret R. Hawkins.	89
Part 4: The Uptake of Sociocultural Approaches in Language Education	111
5 Social Languages and Schooling: The Uptake of Sociocultural Perspectives in School
Jennifer Miller.	113

6 Tinker, Tailor, Teacher, Text: Using a Multiliteracies Approach to Remediate Reading
Alison Beynon 147

Part 5: Implications of Sociocultural Perspectives for Language Teacher Education 167

7 Language, Sociocultural Theory, and L2 Teacher Education: Examining the Technology of Subject Matter and the Architecture of Instruction
Donald Freeman 169

Index 198