

Contents

Foreword	vii
Acknowledgement	ix
The Contributors	x
 1 Introduction
Anwei Feng	1
 Part 1: Policy, Curriculum and Ideological Orientations
2 Bilingual or Multilingual Education in China: Policy and Learner Experience
Agnes S. L. Lam	13
3 Depoliticisation in the English Curriculum
Bob Adamson	34
4 Language in Tibetan Education: The Case of the Neidiban
Gerard Postiglione, Ben Jiao, and Manlaji	49
 Part 2: Varieties in Bilingual Education
5 Typology of Bilingualism and Bilingual Education in Chinese Minority Nationality Regions
Qingxia Dai and Yanyan Cheng	75
6 The Juggernaut of Chinese–English Bilingual Education
Guangwei Hu	94
7 Research and Practice of Tibetan–Chinese Bilingual Education
Minggang Wan and Shanxin Zhang	127
 Part 3: Practices and Underpinning Principles
8 Integrated English—A Bilingual Teaching Model in Southern China
Zengjun Feng and Jinjun Wang	147
9 Implementing Language Policy: Lessons from Primary School English
Ellen Yuefeng Zhang and Bob Adamson	166

10	Challenges and Prospects of Minority Bilingual Education in China—An Analysis of Four Projects Heidi Cobbey	182
11	Facts and Considerations About Bilingual Education in Chinese Universities Pan Jiazhen	200
Part 4: English Provision for Minority Students
12	Teachers' Perceptions of Chinese–English Bilingual Teaching in Guangxi Binlan Huang	219
13	EFL Education in Ethnic Minority Areas in Northwest China: An Investigational Study in Gansu Province Qiuxia Jiang, Quanguo Liu, Xiaohui Quan and Caiqin Ma	240
Conclusion
14	Intercultural Space for Bilingual Education Anwei Feng	259
	Index	287