

Contents

---

Contributors vii

- 1 International Experiential Learning and Global Citizenship 3
REBECCA TIESSEN AND ROBERT HUISH
- 2 Grounding Experiential Learning in “Thick” Conceptions of Global Citizenship 21
JOHN D. CAMERON
- 3 Critical Hyper-Reflexivity and Challenging Power: Pushing Past the Dichotomy of Employability and Good Global Citizenship in Development Studies Experiential Learning Contexts 43
JONATHAN LANGDON AND COLEMAN AGYEYOMAH
- 4 Career Aspirations and Experiential Learning Abroad: Perspectives from Canadian Youth on Short-Term Placements 71
REBECCA TIESSEN
- 5 Uncovering What Lies Beneath: An Examination of Power, Privilege, and Racialization in International Social Work 90
LAHOMA THOMAS AND UPPALA CHANDRASEKERA
- 6 Secondary School Experiential Learning Programs in the Global South: Critical Reflections from an Ontario Study 112
KATHRYN FIZZELL AND MARC EPPRECHT
- 7 Experiential Learning in Challenging Settings: Lessons from Post-Genocide Rwanda 140
MARIE-EVE DESROSIERES AND SUSAN THOMSON

- 8 “Would Flexner Close the Doors on This?” The Ethical Dilemmas of International Health Electives in Medical Education 161
ROBERT HUSH
- 9 Getting Prepared for International Experiential Learning: An Ethical Imperative 185
JULIE DROLET
- 10 Getting the Most out of Studying Abroad: Ways to Maximize Learning in Short-Term Study Trips 198
STACIE TRAVERS
- 11 (De)colonizing Pedagogies: An Exploration of Learning with Students Volunteering Abroad 209
KATIE MACDONALD
- 12 Visual Representation and Canadian Government-Funded Volunteer Abroad Programs: Picturing the Canadian Global Citizen 230
ELLYN CLOST
- 13 Youth Volunteer Stories about International Development: Challenges of Public Engagement Campaigns 258
MANDA ANN RODDICK
- 14 Afterword. There Should Be Nothing Experimental about Experiential Learning: From Globetrotting to Global Citizenship 280
ROBERT HUSH AND REBECCA TIESSEN