

Contents

PREFACE ix

- 1 Canadians in their Setting 1
- 2 A Nation and its Parts 25
- 3 Politics and Political Culture 37
- 4 The Great Boom of 1900–13 55
- 5 Drink, Labour, Public Ownership, and Corruption, 1900–14 85
- 6 Canada, the World, and the Empire 107
- 7 The Politics of War 119
- 8 Canada's Army 139
- 9 The War at Home 153
- 10 Slump and Boom and Slump Again, 1913–22 169
- 11 Literacy, Literature, and Education 187
- 12 The Politics of the 1920s 199
- 13 The Economy in the 1920s 211

viii Contents

- 14 Defining Canada and her New Empire, 1917–31 229
- 15 The Social and Economic Impact of the Depression 245
- 16 Politics and Policy in the Great Depression 259
- 17 The Making of Modern Times: Culture and Communications, 1919–39 279
- 18 The Dominion and the Dictators 295
- 19 The Politics of War, 1939–45 317
- 20 Fighting the War 337
- 21 The War Economy, 1939–45 349
- 22 The Second World War at Home 375
- 23 Planning for Reconstruction 389
-
- APPENDIX 399
- BIBLIOGRAPHY 401
- INDEX 411