

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Preface xi

- 1 The Project 3
  - The Historical Context 3
    - Permanency Planning 4
    - Special-Needs Children 5
    - Adoption Disruption 6
    - Training for Adoption Staff 7
  - Research Context 7
    - Research Design and Procedures 8
    - Process Evaluation 9
    - Outcome Evaluation 10
    - The FAST Program 11
- 2 Research Findings 14
  - Conclusions 17
  - Recommendations 20
- 3 Theoretical Concepts of the Family Assessment Module 21
  - Summary 33
- 4 Application of the Theoretical Concepts to Families Who Foster or Adopt Special-Needs Children 35
  - Well-functioning and Dysfunctional Families 35
  - The Importance of Interviewing Children, Not Only within the Family Group but as a Separate Group (apart from the Parents) 65

vi Contents

Helping the Family Withdraw Their Request to Foster or Adopt a Special-Needs Child 67
Summary 70

5 Child Assessment Module 71

Theoretical Concepts of Child Assessment 71
Application of Development Knowledge to the Assessment of a
Child 87
Summary 98

6 Matching Module 99

The Preparation of the Prospective Adoptive/Foster Family for the Child 101
The Preparation of the Child for a Foster/Adoptive Family 101
Summary 105

7 Maintenance Module for Post-adoptive and Foster Services 106

Foster Parent Support Group 110
Adoptive Parent Support Group 111
Summary 117

8 The Child Welfare Organization 118

Characteristics of Human Service Organizations 118
Current Administrative Issues in Child Welfare 121
Child Welfare Training 123
Summary 125

Appendix 127

1 Summary of Dimension Concepts in the McMaster Model of Family Functioning 128
2 Eco-map 130
3 Genogram 136
4 Home Study Outline 139
5 Child Development Chart 144
6 Child Development Work Sheet 149
7 Service Plans/Examples 150

References 153