

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 3

Part One: Setting the Stage

1 Preparation of an Indigenous Challenger 17

2 Western Imperialism and Its Legal Magic 30

3 Eddie Mabo's Project and Its Obstacles 51

Part Two: Indigenous Colonization and Its Contestation

4 The Distinctive Foundations of Australian Colonialism 69

5 Colonialism Contested and the Winds of Change 120

Part Three: Build-Up to the Mabo Case

6 The Land Rights Movement 155

7 Ten Long Years of Litigation 196

Part Four: The Mabo Case and Its Consequences

8 The High Court's Decision 247

9 Consequences I: Legislating Native Title 279

10 Consequences II: Wik and a Country Deeply Divided 315

viii Contents

11 International Dimensions and Reconciliation 335

12 The Limits of Judicial Power 366

Notes 383

Bibliography 425

Index 451

Maps 20, 21