

LIST OF TABLES

2.1	Events in the anti-sealing campaign	46
4.1	Correlation of physical and biological conditions in the Clyde environment	76
4.2	Estimated Clyde River harvest, 1979	80
4.3	Clyde Inuit diet by season, 1979	81
4.4	Clyde harvest by edible weight per species, 1981-83	82
4.5	Time allocation in three winter hunt samples	86
4.6	Strike-retrieval ratios in Clyde seal hunting	88
5.1	Material-sharing parameters of the Clyde economy	105
6.1	Clyde HBC fur purchases, 1935-45	107
6.2	Clyde HBC Operations Record, 1935-44	107
6.3	Clyde fur sales, 1947-60	112
6.4	Equipment depreciation, Clyde River, 1985	116
6.5	Clyde harvesting costs, 1971-2, 1975-6, 1984-5	117
6.6	Clyde wild products cash income, 1979-80	118
6.7	Clyde one-day sample menu, 1984	119
6.8	Clyde edible harvest levels and frequency, 1979	120
6.9	Nutrient comparison of seal meat and beef	121
6.10	Inuit seasonal wild food consumption, Broughton Island, N.W.T.	121
6.11	Net rate of profit from harvesting as compared to store food purchases at Clyde River, 1984	122
6.12	Clyde ringed sealskin sales, 1979-80 to 1984-85	124
6.13	Clyde harvesting cost comparison in dollars ($) and sealskin units (SSU), 1975-76 and 1984-85	125
6.14	Clyde seasonal seal harvest, 1981-83	126
6.15	Clyde harvester survey, 1981-84	130