

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction xi

- 1 The Objective Discourse of Science 3
- 2 The Ontological Grasp of Judgment 18
- 3 Why Hegel Didn't Join the 'Kant-Klub': Reason and Speculative Discourse 29
- 4 The Fiery Crucible, Yorick's Skull, and Leprosy in the Sky: The Language of Nature (with a Concluding Unscientific Postscriptum) 40
- 5 Presenting the Past: Hegel's Epistemological Historiography 58
- 6 The State University: The University of Berlin and Its Founding Contradictions 71
- 7 Music and Monosyllables: The Language of Pleasure and Necessity 85
- 8 Hegel's Critique of Solger: The Problem of Scientific Communication 96
- 9 On Schleiermacher and Postmodernity 104

Last Words 117

viii Contents

Notes 121

Bibliography 159

Index 171