

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

- 1 Indigenous Economic Justice and Self-Determination: Wise Practices in Indigenous Law, Governance, and Leadership 3
THE EDITORS

Part One: Facilitating and Framing Wise Practices

- 2 A Wise Practices Approach to Indigenous Law, Governance, and Leadership: Resistance against the Imposition of Law 19
BRIAN CALLIOU
- 3 Wise Practices: Towards A Paradigm of Indigenous Applied Community Economic Development Research and Facilitation 44
BRENT MAINPRIZE, ARTHUR MERCER, LIBBY EDWARDS, AND KEVIN HINDLE
- 4 Economic Justice in Practice 78
ROBERT HAMILTON, RYAN BEATON, AND JOSHUA BEN DAVID NICHOLS

Part Two: The State of the Law

- 5 Of Spectrums and Foundations: An Investigation into the Limitations of Aboriginal Rights 115
JOSHUA BEN DAVID NICHOLS

- 6 The State of Canadian Law on Representation and Standing in Aboriginal Rights and Title Litigation 157

RYAN BEATON

- 7 Miyo Pimâtišiw and the Politics of Ignorance: Advancing Indigenous “Good Living” through Dismantling Our Mediated Relations 196

DARCY LINDBERG

Part Three: Alternatives in Practice

- 8 Accepting Responsibility for Your Nationhood Is Worthwhile for Any Nation on Earth, Not Just Indigenous People 223

MILES RICHARDSON

- 9 Wise Practices in Indigenous Economic Development and Environmental Protection 236

JOHN BORROWS

- 10 Looking Inward, Looking Outward: Finding Solutions in Indigenous and International Law 290

ROBERT HAMILTON

- 11 Victory Through Honour: Bridging Canadian Intellectual Property Laws And Kwakwaka’wakw Cultural Property Laws 336

VANESSA UDY

Contributors 365

Index 369