

Contents

Introduction 3

HOI L. KONG AND TANYA MONFORTE

Part One: Social Movements and Innovation

1 Beyond Smart/Sustainable Cities: Towards a Citizen-Centric Rebel Cities Transition 13

JONATHAN DURAND FOLCO

2 Mobilisons-Nous: “Violent Infrastructure” and Pedestrian Space in Montreal 44

KEVIN MANAUGH AND NATALYA BEREZINA DRESZER

3 Boroughs, Small Municipalities, and Sustainability: What Is Municipal Innovation and Can It Make a Difference? 65

RICHARD SHEARMUR

Part Two: The Role of Law and Overcoming Collective Action Problems

4 Sustainable Development and Property Rights: Citizen Participation in Dismantling Urban Environmental Regulation in British Columbia 95

DEBORAH CURRAN

5 Sustainable Urban Design: The Case of Montreal 118

HOI L. KONG

6 The Implications of Stakeholder Group Involvement in Urban Sustainable Development 137

ALEXANDRA FLYNN

7 Complementing Citizen Engagement with Innovative Forms of Professional Co-production: A Renewed Case for Transdisciplinary
Charrettes 163

NIK LUKA, BRIA AIRD, AND NINA-MARIE LISTER

Afterword: Thinking Through Transdisciplinarity in Urban
Sustainability 194

TANYA MONFORTE

Contributors 217

Index 221