

Tables

Table 4.1	Differences between traditional and unconventional digital data sources 62
Table 4.2	Sustainable commuting modes in Canadian CMAs, 2016 67
Table 4.3	Place of work and remote work capacity in Canadian CMAs, 2016 76
Table 6.1	Share of people continuing to ride transit for a given purpose in May 2020, by demographic group 108
Table 7.1	Summarized origin-destination matrix of the Pampalon Deprivation Index score (PDI) of the Dissemination Area (DA) in which each scooter trip began and ended 134
Table 7.2	Gravity model analysis results for number of shared e-scooter trips 137
Table 8.1	Summary of yearly ridership and station count on the bike-share network 154
Table 8.2	Percentage of trips to and from the same station by year 156
Table 8.3	Ridership and accessibility at station 7091 by year 160
Table 9.1	Qualitative data analysis 172
Table 9.2	Government and municipal entities in Quebec involved in the digital mobility ecosystem 176
Table 9.3	Unions and associations related to digital mobility 178
Table 11.1	National-level activities: Canada, United States, Finland 221
Table 13.1	Cumulative percentage of cities with ride-hailing regulation by time period 266
Table 13.2	Number of regulatory steps by Canadian municipalities over time 268
Table 13.3	Number of cities' ride-hailing regulatory steps by province in study 269

This page intentionally left blank