

Contents

PREFACE ix

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xiii

Introduction

Canada before the Arrival of the Printing Press 3

1 The Organization of the Pioneer Book Trade

Bookselling; Literacy and Education; the Newspaper Press and Authorship;
the Printing Office 12

2 The Quest for a Colonial Literature

The Native Author and Newspaper Printer-Publishers 53

3 Bookselling from 1820 to 1867

Libraries and Mechanics' Institutes; Foreign Reprints and Imperial Copyright; the Textbook Trade 93

4 The Mid-Century Revolution in Printing Technology

The Newspaper Press Comes to the North-West and to the Pacific Coast; the Book Production Industry in the Eastern Provinces 139

5 Building a National Publishing Industry

International Copyright and Foreign Reprints; Subscription Publishing;
Textbook Production 166

6 Towards a Compromise

International Copyright; the Manufacturing Clause; Authorship 211

viii Contents

Conclusion 257

NOTES 261

Appendix A

The Growth of the Printing and Allied Trades 1867-1900 305

Appendix B

Exports: Statistics Based on the Annual Trade and Navigation Returns 1867-1900 307

Appendix C

Imports: Statistics Based on the Annual Trade and Navigation Returns 1867-1900 309

Appendix D

A Selected List of Copyright Acts 312

INDEX 315