
Contents

PREFACE

- 1 Monumental murals recall the pageantry of Canada 3
- 2 The royal opening of a 'royal' museum 7
- 3 Two bronze cannon in Queen's Park recall Canada's greatest military heroes 12
- 4 The 'loaded' story of Canada's first airmail flight 17
- 5 Roger Sheaffe and 'the most dramatic day in Toronto's history' 22
- 6 Anne Powell's fatal love affair 27
- 7 Kit Coleman: the world's first woman war correspondent 34
- 8 The mysterious visitor who truly founded the ROM's Chinese collection 39
- 9 'Caverhill': treasure of Rosedale 45
- 10 The teen-age triumphs of the legendary Kathleen Parlow 50

vi Donald Jones

- 11 Sarah Bernhardt's 'scandalous' performance in Toronto 55
- 12 La Salle: the epic tragedy of one of the world's heroes 61
- 13 Was the founder of Upper Canada College the true hero of the Battle of Waterloo? 67
- 14 Oscar Wilde in Toronto 72
- 15 The violinist from Vienna who founded the Toronto Symphony Orchestra 78
- 16 The epic tale of the Scottish Highlanders and Toronto's first Roman Catholic church 83
- 17 The blind young veteran who founded the CNIB 89
- 18 The Toronto nurse who changed her name and became Elizabeth Arden 94
- 19 Bea Lillie: 'The funniest woman in the world' 100
- 20 Why Mackenzie King built a replica of Pasteur's tomb in Toronto 105
- 21 The true story behind Charles Dickens' visit to Toronto 109
- 22 How Leo Tolstoy and a Toronto professor brought the Doukhobors to Canada 116
- 23 The Grange: an architectural treasure 122
- 24 The extraordinary story of a dog named Beautiful Joe 127
- 25 The international (and surprising) tale of Mrs Morrison's opera house 132

- 26 The Reverend John Strachan's grand deception 137
- 27 Bernard Lonergan: perhaps the finest philosopher of the 20th century 143
- 28 Canada's Margaret Anglin: 'one of America's greatest actresses' 148
- 29 How a beloved 'dictator' built the Hospital for Sick Children 153
- 30 The man who founded the Canadian Opera Company 158
- 31 The Toronto riots of 1832 and William Lyon Mackenzie's 'greatest moment' 163
- 32 The forgotten story of a Frans Hals masterpiece 168
- 33 Egerton Ryerson and a famous letter to the editor 173
- 34 The choir that wouldn't die 178
- 35 How a world-famous statue of Peter Pan came to Toronto 183
- 36 The man who helped Sigmund Freud escape from the Gestapo 188
- 37 Canada's first black doctor: a hero of the American Civil War 194
- 38 Did Captain Roy Brown really kill the Red Baron? 199
- 39 The actor who became governor-general 203
- 40 The first forester of the New World 209
- 41 The mystery surrounding Prince George's death 215
- 42 The sculptor who designed Canada's 'caribou' quarter and 'Bluenose' dime 221

viii Donald Jones

- 43 Dr Tupper, Sir John, and the 'picnics' that changed Canada's history 226
- 44 Miss Deeks' notorious lawsuit against H.G. Wells 233
- 45 The man who raised Canada's first Red Cross flag 238
- 46 The monument to Fort Rouillé where the city of Toronto truly began 243
- 47 Frederick Denison and the valiant effort to save 'Chinese' Gordon 248
- 48 The subject of one of history's most romantic utterances finds a home in Toronto 252
- 49 Toronto's first book of photographs reveals an almost unknown city 258
- 50 The maple tree that stands as a memorial to 5,000 heroes 264

CREDITS 271

INDEX 273