

Contents

1. Introduction	1
Tim Lewis, Marco Cappellini, and Annick Rivens Mompean
2. From Learner Autonomy to Rewilding: A Discussion	12
David Little and Steve L. Thorne
3. The Development of Language Learner Autonomy in Adaptive Learning Systems	36
Ruslan Suvorov and Adolfo Carrillo Cabello
4. A Typology of Metacognition: Examining Autonomy in a Collective Blog Compiled in a Teletandem Environment	67
Daniela Nogueira de Moraes Garcia, Kathleen M. O'Connor, and Marco Cappellini
5. Rethinking the Concept of Learner Autonomy Within the MALL Environment	91
Martine Pellerin
6. 'Old Concepts in New Spaces': A Model for Developing Learner Autonomy in Social Networking Spaces	115
Ward Peeters and Christian Ludwig
7. Informal Social Networking Sites for Language Learning: Insights into Autonomy Stances	141
Katerina Zourou, Anthippi Potolia, and Filio Zourou
8. Learner Autonomy in Beginning Language MOOCs (LMOOCs): The Student Teachers' Perspective	168
Carolyn Fuchs
9. Autonomy, the Online Informal Learning of English (OILE), and Learning Resource Centers (LRCs): Relationships Between Learner Autonomy, L2 Proficiency, L2 Autonomy and Digital Literacy	198
Denyze Toffoli and Laurent Perrot
Index	229

