

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

I. Akbar at the Age of Sixty. (Wantage Collection, Victoria and Albert Museum.) Part of a group picture by the artist Manohar . . .	Frontispiece
II. Title-page of the original Edition of the HISTOIRE . . .	FACING PAGE XXXVI
III. Akbar Hunting Antelope. (From a manuscript copy of the AKBARNAMA of Abul Fazl illustrated by contemporary painters, and now in the possession of the Victoria and Albert Museum, South Kensington.) Artists: Lal (outline), Sanwalah (painting) . . .	10
IV. A Vassal Prince doing Homage to Akbar. (From the same source as the preceding.) Artists: Muskin (outline), Sarwan (painting), Madhu (eight portraits) . . .	64
V. The Bargah-Nauroz, or New Year's Day Darbar. (British Museum, Add. MS. 22470.) The picture is unsigned. Akbar (aged about 45) is surrounded by his chief officers of state, whose names are inscribed in tiny characters on their costumes. The seven figures on his right hand are (commencing from the left of the picture), Shaikh Faizi (?), Asaf Khan, Abul Fazl, Aziz Koka, Raja Man Singh, the Khan-Khanan, and Aka Shah. The aged Todar Mal is seen on the right of the picture, with hands folded . . .	74
VI. Prince Salim attacked by a Lioness. (British Museum, Stowe Or. 16.) Unsigned . . .	80
VII. The Magdalen. (Wantage Collection, Victoria and Albert Museum, South Kensington.) Copied from an Italian picture by one of Jahangir's court artists . . .	190
VIII. Jahangir shortly after his Accession. (Victoria and Albert Museum, South Kensington.) Part of a group picture by the artist Govardhan (?) . . .	204

