

CONTENTS

Part One. Orientalists

1. An Ostrich Egg for Golius; the John Rylands Library MS Persian 913 and the History of Early Modern Contacts between the Dutch Republic and the Islamic World	9
2. Franz von Dombay and the Bosnian Border	75
3. Christiaan Snouck Hurgronje in Istanbul, 1908	153
4. The Importance of the Süssheim Papers for Modern Turkish History	181
5. Karl Süssheim and the Bavarian Postal Censorship During the First World War	197
6. Franz Taeschner's Collection of Turkish Manuscripts in the Leiden University Library	237

Part Two. Travellers and Merchants in the Ottoman Empire

1. Ottoman Hajj Manuals and the John Rylands Library MS Turkish 88	269
2. The Travel Notes of Dutch Pastor in Anatolia, 1717-1727 ...	279
3. Dutch Merchants in 18th-century Ankara	301
4. The Return Journey of Baron Van Dedem van de Gelder, Dutch Ambassador to the Sublime Porte, in 1793	329
5. Dutch Opium Dealers in the Levant, 1820-1945	399

Part Three. Political Relations between Europe and the Porte

1. French-Ottoman Relations in the Early Modern Period and the John Rylands Library MSS Turkish 45 & 46	417
2. "Showing the Flag". The Dutch Navy in Ottoman Waters, 1875-1925	475
3. The Herklots Affair of 1893. A Case Study in Capitalism and Power Politics	551

