Haim Gerber is professor emeritus in the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Ever since he has studied the court records of seventeenth century Bursa in the early 1970s he has been interested in Ottoman economic social and legal history, Jews in the Ottoman Empire and the effect of the Ottoman Empire on the modern Middle East. Among his publications are Economy and Society in an Ottoman City: Bursa 1600-1700 (Jerusalem, 1988), The Social Origins of the Modern Middle East (Boulder 1987), and State, Society and Law in Islam: Ottoman Law in Comparative Perspective (Albany, 1994).
