

CONTENTS

LECTURE I

The Fact of the Resurrection of our Lord

	PAGES
Principle and Aim of the Lectures . . . . .	1—2
I.—PRELIMINARY REMARKS.
1. A Belief in the Miraculous presupposed . . . . .	2—3
2. The Authenticity and Genuineness of the Books of Scripture assumed . . . . .	3—6
II.—THE NATURE OF THE FACT.
1. Two mistakes to be avoided—
(1) That the Resurrection is to be regarded solely in a spiritual sense . . . . .	7—8
(2) That Christ entirely, or in part, laid aside His material body, assuming it only at special times . . . . .	8—10
2. The nature of Christ's Resurrection-body—
(1) In many respects similar to what it had been . . . . .	10—12
(2) In many respects different from what it had been . . . . .	12—14
3. Considerations confirming the view taken—
(1) The Glorification of Jesus began at His Resurrection . . . . .	14—17
(2) The work of Redemption was then completed . . . . .	17—18
(3) Our Lord's Resurrection is the type of our own . . . . .	18—24

	PAGES
III.—OBJECTIONS CONSIDERED.
1. The view taken of our Lord's Resurrection-body is self-contradictory . . . . .	24—27
2. The instantaneousness of the change required is impossible . . . . .	27—28
3. The change would destroy personal identity . . . . .	28—32
IV.—CONSEQUENCES FOLLOWING FROM THE FACT.
1. The Evidence is that of Believers only . . . . .	32—35
2. The Evidence can be fully appreciated only by Believers . . . . .	35—38

LECTURE II

The Evidence for the Resurrection of our Lord

I.—THE EVIDENCE OF ST. PAUL.

1. St. Paul affirms that he had seen the Risen Lord . . . . . 39—41
2. The effect produced upon him by what he saw . . . . . 41—42
3. The Risen Lord the centre of the Pauline Theology . . . . . 42—44
4. The weight to be attached to St. Paul's evidence . . . . . 44—45

II.—THE EVIDENCE OF OTHERS OF THE APOSTLES.

1. The Evidence of St. Peter and St. John . . . . . 45—46
2. The effect of the Resurrection on the lives of the Apostles . . . . . 46—47
3. The connexion of the Apostolic Office with the Resurrection . . . . . 47—48

III.—THE EVIDENCE OF MANY OF THE FIRST DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

1. The variety of circumstances under which the Risen Lord appeared . . . . . 49—51
2. The characteristics of the evidence afforded . . . . . 51—52
3. The evidence published where and when the event happened . . . . . 52—55

	PAGES
4. Alleged defects in the evidence—
(1) There was no eye-witness of the Resurrection itself . . . . .	55—56
(2) The different witnesses are inconsistent with each other . . . . .	56—62
 IV.—THE EVIDENCE AFFORDED BY THE RISE AND EXISTENCE OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
1. Belief in the Resurrection necessary to account for the origin of the Church . . . . .	62—65
2. The Church reconstructed on the basis of this belief . . . . .	65—68
3. Facts in the life of the Early Church confirmatory of this—
(1) Institution of the Lord's Day . . . . .	68—69
(2) Institution of Easter Day . . . . .	69—70
(3) Testimony of the early Liturgies, and even of the language of common life . . . . .	70—71
 V.—THE EVIDENCE IN RELATION TO THE OTHER FACTS OF CHRIST'S HISTORY . . . . .	71—72
 VI.—THE EVIDENCE AFFORDED BY THE EMPTY GRAVE	72—73
The Place and Importance of the Historical Evidence . . . . .	73—75

LECTURE III

Theories opposed to the Fact of the Resurrection of our Lord

I.—THAT OUR LORD DID NOT REALLY DIE . . . . .	76—80
II.—THAT THE DISCIPLES PRACTISED AN IMPOSITION ON THE WORLD . . . . .	80—81
III.—THE VISION THEORY.
Explanation of the Theory . . . . .	81—83
1. Theory tested in the case of St. Paul—
(1) By the Apostle's own language . . . . .	84—88

	PAGES
(2) By considerations connected with his character and work . . . . .	88—90
(3) By the circumstances attending his conversion . . . . .	90—93
 2. Theory tested in the case of the Early Church--
(1) Inconsistent with the mental state of the Disciples previous to the manifestations . . . . .	93—100
(2) Inconsistent with the nature of the manifestations themselves . . . . .	100—102
(3) Inconsistent with the state of the Christian community after the manifestations . . . . .	102—107
(4) Inconsistent with other circumstances marking the manifestations . . . . .	108—114
(a) With the length of time often occupied by them . . . . .	108
(b) With the fact of their having been witnessed by many persons simultaneously . . . . .	108—110
(c) With the scene of the chief manifestations . . . . .	110—112
(d) With their sudden cessation . . . . .	112—114
Modification of the theory by Keim . . . . .	114—117
The modification interesting, but untenable . . . . .	117—119

LECTURE IV

Bearing of the Resurrection of our Lord upon His Person and Work

The Christian consciousness not independent of the fact . . . . .	120—121
The meaning of the fact not exhausted by the ordinary statements upon the point . . . . .	121—123
Place assigned to it in the teaching of Scripture--
1. In particular passages . . . . .	123—127
2. In the general structure and tone of different Books of Scripture . . . . .	127—129

	PAGES
I.—BEARING OF THE FACT ON THE PERSON OF OUR LORD.
It marks an advance on our Lord's Person . . . . .	129—131
This advance in conformity with God's eternal plan . . . . .	131—133
Our Lord the Archetype in which the Divine idea is realised . . . . .	133—134
Our Lord's human nature perfected by His Resurrection . . . . .	134
His Resurrection a part of the Redemptive process . . . . .	135
 II.—BEARING OF THE FACT ON THE WORK OF OUR LORD.
1. The Resurrection was the first stage in the completing of His work—
(1) Of His work as Priest—
That work not completed by His death . . . . .	136—137
Ritual of the Law in the case of the sin-offering . . . . .	137—140
Application to our Lord's Priestly work . . . . .	140—142
(2) Of His work as Prophet—
Without His Resurrection the Message of Salvation would have been incomplete . . . . .	143
The Ministry of the Spirit would have been wanting . . . . .	143—148
(3) Of His work as King . . . . .
. . . . .	148—151
Our Lord's Resurrection thus the completion of the first stage of His whole work . . . . .	151—152
2. The Resurrection was the Divine attestation to the work—
(1) To the manner in which the work had been accomplished . . . . .
. . . . .	153—156
(2) To the fact that the end of the work had been attained . . . . .
. . . . .	156—

LECTURE V

*Bearing of the Resurrection of our Lord upon
Christian Life and Hope*

	PAGES
The union between Christ and His people . . . . .	160—163
 I.—THE RISEN LORD THE SOURCE OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE OF UNION WITH GOD.
(1) Teaching of Scripture on this point . . . . .	163—165
(2) Teaching of experience on this point . . . . .	165—166
An Incarnate Lord as necessary now as ever . . . . .	166—167
The teaching of Scripture with regard to the Second Adam . . . . .	167—170
 II.—FROM THE RISEN LORD THE CHRISTIAN LIFE DERIVES ITS CHARACTER AND SCOPE.
Our Christian standard is that of the Divine and Heavenly Lord . . . . .	170—176
There is implied in this—
(1) Separation from the world . . . . .	176—177
(2) Consecration to God . . . . .	177—179
(3) Freedom . . . . .	179—181
General effect of thus looking at the Christian life—
(1) In relation to work and suffering . . . . .	181—182
(2) In relation to the consecration of the body . . . . .	182—183
 III.—FROM THE RISEN LORD THE CHRISTIAN LIFE DERIVES ITS NOURISHMENT AND STRENGTH.
Our Christian communion is with a Present and Living Lord . . . . .	183—186
But with a Lord Risen also in the body . . . . .	186—188
 IV.—IN THE RISEN LORD THE CHRISTIAN LIFE HAS ITS CONSUMMATION.
The Risen Lord conveys to us the hope of im- mortality . . . . .	189
With a personal individual existence . . . . .	189—193
Christians made partakers of the Divine nature . . . . .	193—195

LECTURE VI

Bearing of the Resurrection of our Lord upon the Church and the World

	PAGES
I.—BEARING OF THE FACT UPON THE CHURCH.
It was the purpose of our Lord to institute a Church on earth . . . . .	196—198
The Church instituted by the Risen Lord . . . . .	198—199
The Disciples prepared for their work by the Risen Lord . . . . .	199—201
In the Risen Lord we read the true nature of the Church's Mission . . . . .	201—203
It is to the Risen Lord that the Church bears witness . . . . .	203
Some characteristics of the Church resulting from this idea—
(1) In her being—
(a) The visible unity of the Church	203—207
(b) Her aspect as a suffering yet triumphant Church . . . . .	207—212
(c) The worship of the Church . . . . .	212—216
(2) In her action on the world—
(a) The universality of her Mission flows from the Risen Lord . . . . .	216—217
(b) Her responsibility discharged through the Risen Lord . . . . .	217—224
II.—BEARING OF THE FACT UPON THE WORLD . . . . .	224—227
Closing Observations . . . . .	227—236
—————
NOTES . . . . .	239—316

