

Table of Contents

	PAGE
I
THE NEGLECTED PENINSULA	17
Arabia the centre of the Moslem world—Boundaries—The coast —Physical characteristics—Climate—Water-supply—Geology —The Wadys—Mountains—Deserts.
II
THE GEOGRAPHICAL DIVISIONS OF ARABIA	25
Natural divisions—Provinces—Political geography—Important flora and fauna—Population.
III
THE HOLY LAND OF ARABIA—MECCA	30
Its boundaries—Sacredness—European travellers—Jiddah—Its bombardment—The pilgrimage—Mecca—Its location—Water- supply—Governor—The Kaaba—The Black Stone—Zemzem —Duty of pilgrimage—The pilgrims—The day of sacrifice— The certificate—Character of Meccans—Temporary marriages —Superstitions—Mishkash—Schools of Mecca—Course of study.
IV
THE HOLY LAND OF ARABIA—MEDINA	45
Taif—Heathen idols—The road to Medina—Sanctity of Medina —The prophet's mosque—Was Mohammed buried there?— The five tombs—Prayer for Fatima—Living on the pilgrims —Character of people—Yanbo—Importance of Mecca to Islam.
V
ADEN AND AN INLAND JOURNEY	53
The gateways to Arabia Felix—Aden—Its ancient history—For- tifications—Tanks—Divisions—Population—Journey inland— Wahat—The vegetation of Yemen—A Turkish customhouse —The storm in the wady—Taiz—The story of the books.

	PAGE
VI
YEMEN: THE SWITZERLAND OF ARABIA	62
The Jews of Yemen—From Taiz to Ibb and Yerim—Beauty of scenery—Climate—Ali's footprint—Damar—Sana—Commerce and manufactures—Roda—From Sana to the coast—The terraces of Yemen—Suk-el Khamis—Menakha—Bajil—Hodeidah.
VII
THE UNEXPLORED REGIONS OF HADRAMAUT	72
Von Wrede's travels—Halévy—Mr. and Mrs. Bent's journeys—Makalla—Incense-trade—The castles and palaces—Shibam—Shehr and its ruler—Hadramaut and the Indian archipelago.
VIII
MUSCAT AND THE COASTLANDS OF OMAN	78
Boundaries—Population—Government—Muscat—Heat—The forts—The town—The gardens—Trade—The coast of Oman—The pirate-coast—The Batina—Sib, Barka, Sohar—From Muscat to Ras-el-Had—Sur—Carter's exploration—The Mahrah and Gharah tribes—Frankincense.
IX
THE LAND OF THE CAMEL	88
"The mother of the camel"—Importance of the camel to Arabia—Tradition as to its creation—Species—The dromedary—An illustration of design—Products of the camel—Characteristics—The interior of Oman—Chief authorities—Fertility—Caravan-routes—Peter Zwemer's journey—Jebel Achdar.
X
THE PEARL ISLANDS OF THE GULF	97
Ancient history of Bahrein—Origin of name—Population—Menamah—The fresh-water springs—The pearl-fisheries—Superstitions about pearls—Value and export—Method of diving—Boats—Apparatus—Dangers to the divers—Mother-of-pearl—Other manufactures—Ruins at Ali—The climate—Political history—English protection.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

9

XI

PAGE

THE EASTERN THRESHOLD OF ARABIA	110
The province of Hassa—Katar—The Route inland—Ojeir—Journey to Hofhoof—The two curses of agriculture—The capital of Hassa—Plan of the town—Its manufactures—Curious coinage—The government of Hassa—Katif—Its unhealthfulness.

XII

THE RIVER-COUNTRY AND THE DATE-PALM	119
The cradle of the race—Boundaries of Mesopotamia—The Tigris-Euphrates—Meadow lands—The palms—Their beauty—Fruitfulness—Usefulness—Varieties of dates—Value—Other products—Population—Provinces and districts—The government.

XIII

THE CITIES AND VILLAGES OF TURKISH-ARABIA	128
Kuweit—Fao—Abu Khassib—Busrah—The river navigation—A journey—Kurna—Ezra's tomb—Amara—The tomb of the barber—The arch of Ctesiphon—Bagdad, past and present—Population—Trade—Kelleks.

XIV

A JOURNEY DOWN THE EUPHRATES	136
Journey to Hillah—The route—Kerbela—Down the Euphrates—Diwaniyeh—The soldier-guard—Amphibious Arabs—Samawa—Ya Ali, Ya Hassan!—Nasariya—Ur—The end of our journey—The future of Mesopotamia.

XV

THE INTERIOR—KNOWN AND UNKNOWN	143
What it includes—Its four divisions—(1) "The empty quarter" Our ignorance of this part of Arabia—(2) Nejran—The Dauasir-valley and other wadys—Halévy's travels—Aflaj—The Roman expedition to Nejran—(3) Nejd—Its proper limits—The zephyrs of Nejd—Soil—Vegetation—Animals—The ostrich—The horse—The chief authorities on this part of Arabia—The population of Nejd—The character of government—Intercourse with Mesopotamia—Chief cities—Hail—Riad—(4) Jebel Shammar—The Bedouin-tribes—Division—Character and customs—Robbery—Universal poverty.

	PAGE
XVI
"THE TIME OF IGNORANCE"	158
Why so-called—The golden age of literature—The influence of Christianity and Judaism—Tribal constitution of society—Commerce—Incense—Foreign invasions—Political commotion—The condition of women—Female infanticide—The veil—Rights of women—Marriage choice—Polygamy and Polyandry—Two kinds of marriage—Did Islam elevate woman?—Writing in "the days of ignorance"—Poetry—Mohammed's opinion of poets—The religions—Sabeanism—The Pantheon at Mecca—Jinn—Totemism—Tattooing—Names of idols—Allah—Decay of idolatry—The Hanifs.
XVII
ISLAM IN ITS CRADLE—THE MOSLEM'S GOD	169
Different views—Carlyle—Hugh Broughton—Borrowed elements of Islam—The God of Islam—Palgrave's portrait—Attributes of God—What God is not—Analysis of Islam—Borrowed elements of Islam.
XVIII
THE PROPHET AND HIS BOOK	179
The prophet of Islam—Birth of Mohammed—His environment—Factors that helped to make the man—Political, religious and family factor—Khadijah—Mohammed's appearance, mind and character—His transgression of law—His sensuality—His murders—Expeditions—Mohammed, as he became through tradition—His glories, favor and power as an intercessor—How Moslems regard the Koran—Its character according to Dr. Post, Goethe and Nöldeke—Its names—Contents—Origin—Recension—Its beauties—Its defects—Its omissions.
XIX
THE WAHABI RULERS AND REFORMERS	191
The story of past century—The Wahabis—Character of teaching—The preacher and the sword—Taking of Mecca and Medina—Kerbela—Mohammed Ali—The Hejaz campaign—Ghalye—Turkish cruelty—English expedition—Peace—The Wahabi dynasty—Abdullah bin Rashid—Rise of Nejd kingdom—Character of rule—Hail conquers Riad.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

11

	XX	PAGE
THE RULERS OF OMAN		202
Oman rulers—Seyid Said—Feysul bin Turki—The rebels take Muscat—Arab warfare—European diplomacy.
XXI
THE STORY OF THE TURKS IN ARABIA		206
Hejaz—The Sherifs of Mecca—Othman Pasha—Threats to assassinate him—Turkish troops in Asir—Losses—The conquest of Yemen—Turkish rule—Rebellions—The rebellion of 1892—Bagdad, Busrah and Hassa—Taxes—The Turks and Bedouins—The army—Character of rule.
XXII
BRITISH INFLUENCE IN ARABIA		218
British possessions—Aden—Socotra—Perim—Kuria Muria islands—Bahrein—Her naval supremacy—In the Gulf—German testimony—Survey of coasts—Telegraph and posts—Slave-trade—Commerce—British India S. N. Co.—Gulf trade—The rupee—Trade of Aden—Overland railway—Treaties with tribes—The Trucial League—England in Oman—Aden—Makalla—Method of “protection”—British consuls and agents.
XXIII
PRESENT POLITICS IN ARABIA		233
Hejaz—Future of Yemen—France in Oman—Russia in the Gulf—The Tigris-Euphrates Valley—The greater kingdom—God’s providence in history.
XXIV
THE ARABIC LANGUAGE		238
Wide extent—Its character—Renan’s opinion—The Semitic family—Their original home—The two theories—Table of the group—The influence of the Koran on the Arabic language—Koran Arabic not pure—Origin of alphabet—Cufic—Calligraphy as an art—Difficulty and beauty of Arabic speech—Its purity—Literature—Difficulty of pronunciation—Of its grammar—Keith Falconer’s testimony.

	XXV	PAGE
THE LITERATURE OF THE ARABS		251
Division of its literature—The seven poems—The Koran—Al Hariri—Its beauty and variety—Arabic poetry in general—Influence of Arabic and other languages—English influence on the Arabic—The Arabic Bible and a Christian literature.
	XXVI
THE ARAB		258
Origin of tribes—Two theories—Yemenite and Maädite—The caravan routes—Bedouins and townsmen—Clark's classification—Genealogies—Tribal names—Character of Arabs—Influence of neighbors—Their physique—Their aristocracy—Intolerance—Speech—Oaths—Robbery—Privilege of sanctuary—Generosity—Blood-revenge—Childhood—Fireside talk—Marriage among Bedouins—Position of women—Four witnesses—Doughty—Burckhardt—Lady Ann Blunt—Hurgonje—Woman despised—The kinds of dwelling—Tents and houses—Dress—The staple foods—Coffee, tobacco and locusts.
	XXVII
ARABIAN ARTS AND SCIENCES		274
Music of the Arabs—War chants—Instruments of music—Songs—Kaseedahs in Yemen—Mecca chants—Science of Athar and Wasm —Tracking camels—Tribal marks—Medical knowledge of the Arabs—Diseases—Remedies—A prescription—The Koran's panacea—A Mecca M. D.—Amulets—Superstitions.
	XXVIII
THE STAR-WORSHIPPERS OF MESOPOTAMIA		285
Where they live—Their peculiar religion—Their language—Literature—A prayer-meeting of the Star Worshippers—Strange ceremonies—The dogmas—Gnostic ideas—Priesthood—Baptisms—Babylonian origin.
	XXIX
EARLY CHRISTIANITY IN ARABIA		300
Pentecost—Paul's journey—The Arabs and the Romans—Christian tribes of the North—Mavia—Naaman's edict—Christianity in Yemen—Character of Oriental Christianity—The

TABLE OF CONTENTS

13

	PAGE
Collyridians — Theophilus — Nejran converts — Martyrs — Abraha, king of Yemen—Marching to Mecca—The defeat— End of early Christianity—The record of the rocks.

XXX

THE DAWN OF MODERN ARABIAN MISSIONS	314
Raymond Lull—Henry Martyn—Why the Moslem world was neglected—Claudius Buchanan's sermon—The Syrian mis- sions—Doctor Van Dyck—His Bible translation—Henry Martyn, the pioneer—His Arabian assistant—Visit to Muscat— His Arabic version—Anthony N. Groves—Dr. John Wilson of Bombay—The Bible Society—Opening of doors—Major-Gen- eral Haig's journeys—Arabia open—Dr. and Mrs. Harpur and the C. M. S.—A call to prayer—Bagdad occupied—The pres- ent work—Missionary journeys to the Jews—William Lethaby at Kerak—The North Africa mission among the nomads— Samuel Van Tassel—The Christian Missionary Alliance— Mackay's appeal from Uganda—The response.

XXXI

ION KEITH FALCONER AND THE ADEN MISSION	331
Keith Falconer's character—Education—At Cambridge—Mission work—His "eccentricity"—Leipzig and Assiut—How he came to go to Arabia—His first visit—Plans for the interior— His second voyage to Aden—Dwelling—Illness—Death— The influence of his life—The mission at Sheikh Othman.

XXXII

BISHOP FRENCH THE VETERAN MISSIONARY TO MUSCAT	344
"The most distinguished of all C. M. S. missionaries"—Re- sponds to Mackay's appeal—His character—His letters from Muscat—His plans for the interior—Death—The grave.

XXXIII

THE AMERICAN ARABIAN MISSION	353
Its origin—The student band—The first plan—Laid before the church—Organization—The Missionary Hymn—James Can- tine—Syria—Cairo—Aden—Kamil—Journeys of exploration to the Gulf and Sana—Busrah—Dr. C. E. Riggs—Death of Kamil—Opposition from government—Home administration—

Bahrein occupied—Lines of work—Muscat—Journey through Yemen—The mission transferred to the Reformed Church—Troubles at Muscat and Busrah—Dr. Worrall—Journeys in Oman—Scripture-sales—First-fruits—Reinforcements.

XXXIV

IN MEMORIAM	367
Peter John Zwemer—George E. Stone.

XXXV

PROBLEMS OF THE ARABIAN FIELD	374
The general problem of missions to Moslems—The Arabian problem—What part of Arabia is accessible—Turkish Arabia—Its accessibility—Limitations—The accessibility of independent Arabia—Climate—Moslem fanaticism—English influence—Illiteracy—The Bedouins—The present missionary force—Its utter inadequacy—Methods of work—Medical missions—Schools—Work for women—Colportage—Preaching—Controversy—What should be its character—The attitude of the Moslem mind—Fate of converts—Thoughtless and thoughtful Moslems—The Bible as dynamite—The right men for the work.

XXXVI

THE OUTLOOK FOR MISSIONS TO MOSLEMS IN ARABIA	391
Two views of work for Moslems—Christian fatalism—Results in Moslem lands—India—Persia—Constantinople—Sumatra and Java—Other signs of progress—The significance of persecution—Character of converts—Promise of God for victory over Islam—Christ or Mohammed—Missionary promises of the Old Testament—The Rock of Jesus' Sonship—Special promises for Arabia—Hagar and Ishmael—The prayer of Abraham—The sign of the covenant with Ishmael—The third revelation of God's love—The sons of Ishmael—Kedar and Nebaioth—The promises—Seba and Sheba—The spiritual boundaries of Arabia—Da Costa's poem—Faith like Abraham—O that Ishmael might live before thee.

APPENDIX I—CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE	409
“ II—TRIBES OF NORTH ARABIA	413
“ III—KAAT AND COFFEE CULTURE	414
“ IV—AN ARABIAN BIBLIOGRAPHY	416
INDEX	427