

TABLES AND ILLUSTRATIONS

CHAPTER 2A

Table 1: Synopsis of Flood days and dates in comparative biblical and biblically-related texts

Table 2: Noah's Flood in a 360-day calendar according to Chuytin

Table 3: 150 days of mighty waters in different calendars

Table 4: Number of days from the resting of the ark to the disembarkment in Sabbatical months

Table 5: From the Ark's rest to disembarkment, LXX dates and sabbatical calendar

Table 6: The year of the Flood

Table 7: Chronology of the births and deaths of the antediluvian ancestors in years before the Flood

CHAPTER 2B

Table 1a: Five biblical dates with 4Q252

Table 1: Flood Calendars and Birds of the ark

Table 2: Full Chronology of flood in 4Q252

Table 3: Noah's flood in a 27-day month with LXX dates

CHAPTER 4

Table 1: Generational schemes

Table 2: A Comparison of Antediluvian Sections

Table 3: Motif of seeking life

CHAPTER 8

Fig 1. The "Schagen" and "Dordrecht" Arks. Official Press Photo.
Courtesy of Ark van Noach.

Fig. 2. "Dordrecht" Ark. Photo by Jason M. Silverman

CHAPTER 12

Fig 1: Coloratura singing

Fig 2: Prayer of Petition

Fig 3: Noé's Steadfast faith

Fig 4: Noé's prayer

Fig 5: Sela's Faithlessness

Fig 6 (1): Saint-Saëns's motifs

The riddles of God are more satisfying than the solutions of Man.

— G. K. Chesterton
(Introduction to the Book of Job, 1907)

עשות ספרים הרבה אין קץ

ולהג הרבה יגעת בשר

Making many books has no end
And much study is weariness of the flesh
— Qoh 12:12

