

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Though I am personally responsible for the content of this study, I could not have completed it without the support and encouragement of so many. Therefore, I want to extend my thanks and communicate my appreciation to the following:

To Dr. D. Jeffrey Bingham, Dr. Glenn R. Kreider, and Dr. Clayton N. Jefford. Your critiques provoked me to deeper reflection and your encouragements kept the project moving forward.

To my intern, Christopher Crane, who assisted in the long editing process.

To my wife, Stephanie, I love you deeply. Countless nights you went to sleep without me and woke up alone. Your firm support pushed me when I needed more than internal motivation to keep going.

To my children, Sophie, Lucas, and Nathan. You were my most tempting distractions. Your joyful resilience through this long process, wondering why I wasn't at home, asking when I'd be done, and still encouraging me to press on—these things moved me forward like nothing else.

*In ipsa item catholica ecclesia magnopere curandum est, ut id teneamus, quod ubique, quod semper, quod ad omnibus creditum est;
hoc est etenim vere proprieque catholicum.*

Now in the catholic church itself we take the greatest care to hold that which has been believed everywhere, always, and by all;
that is truly and properly catholic.

St. Vincent of Lérins, 434 CE

“Οπου ἂν ᾖ Χριστὸς Ἰησοῦς, ἐκεῖ ἡ καθολικὴ ἐκκλησία.

Wherever Christ Jesus is,
there is the catholic church.

St. Ignatius of Antioch, 110 CE
