

CONTENTS

	Acknowledgments	ix
1	Race and Place in Cadillac-Corning	I
2	A Neighborhood Is Born: Housing Development, Racial Change, and Boundary Building	15
3	Maintaining Racial Boundaries: Criminalization, Neighborhood Context, and the Origins of Gang Injunctions	33
4	The Chaos of Upstanding Citizens: Disorderly Community Partners and Broken Windows Policing	56
5	“We Don’t Need No Gang Injunction! We Just Out Here Tryin’ to Function!”	78
6	Conclusion	112
	References	123
	Index	133

