

CONTENTS

	Abbreviations	vii
	Chronology	ix
	Introduction: Background Information about Japanese Military Sexual Slavery and the Redress Movement for the Victims	I
I	Theoretical and Conceptual Frameworks	19
2	Enough Information, but the Issue Was Buried for Half a Century	32
3	The Emergence of the “Comfort Women” Issue and Victims’ Breaking Silence	48
4	General Information about the “Comfort Women” System	69
5	Forced Mobilization of “Comfort Women”	86
6	Payments of Fees and Affectionate Relationships	107
7	Sexual Exploitation, Violence, and Threats at “Comfort Stations”	125
8	The Perils of Korean “Comfort Women’s” Homecoming Trips	145
9	Korean “Comfort Women’s” Lives in Korea and China	161
10	Progress of the Redress Movement in Korea	183
11	Divided Responses to the Redress Movement in Japan	206
12	Responses to the Redress Movement in the United States	232
	Conclusion	255
	Acknowledgments	267
	Notes	271
	References	275
	Index	293

