

---

Contents

List of Figures    xiii

A Note on Translations and Orthography    xvi

- 1 A Complex of Martyrs    1
    On Understanding Early Modern Christianity    8
    The Nature of the Martyrological Sources    16
    The Course of Exposition    26
- 2 The Late Medieval Inheritance    30
    The Absence and Presence of Martyrs in the
        Late Middle Ages    31
    Suffering Patiently, Dying Well, and the Passion of Christ    50
    Christian Martyrs outside the Church in the
        Late Middle Ages    62
- 3 The Willingness to Kill    74
    Prosecuting Religious Criminals    75
    The Duty of Intolerance    78
    The Trajectory of Argumentation    82
    Laws, Institutions, and the Contingencies of Practice    90
- 4 The Willingness to Die    97
    The Poverty of Theory    99
    Foundations: Faith and Scripture    105
    Contemporary Communities: Social Support
        and Sustenance    112
    Historical Communities: Pedigrees of the Persecuted    119
    Prison Activities: Practicing the Beliefs    126
    The Art of Dying Well    134

5	Witnesses for the Gospel: Protestants and Martyrdom	139
	The Early Evangelical Martyrs and Emergent Protestant Identity	141
	Avoiding Idolatry, Following Christ: Convictions to Die For	153
	The Midcentury Martyrologies	165
	The Protestant Martyrologies in National Contexts	187
6	Nachfolge Christi : Anabaptists and Martyrdom	197
	Müntzer to Münster: Forging an Anabaptist Martyrological Mentality	200
	Anabaptist Martyrs in the Low Countries	215
	The Transformation of the Dutch Mennonite Martyrological Tradition	231
7	The New Saints: Roman Catholics and Martyrdom	250
	Defensive Martyrdom: The Henrician Catholics	254
	The Passion for Passion in Post-Tridentine Catholicism	272
	The Role of the Martyrs in Catholic Devotional Life	297
8	The Conflict of Interpretations	315
	The Weaknesses of Nondoctrinal Criteria	320
	“Not the Punishment, but the Cause, Makes a Martyr”	329
	Implications and Conclusions	339
	Conclusion: A Shared and Shattered Worldview	342
	Appendix	355
	Notes	359
	Index	509