

---

Contents

Preface    ix

Acknowledgments    xiii

Introduction    1

I    Allyn Abbott Young (1876–1929)

1. Intellectual Formation    13
    Richard T. Ely and English Political Economy    19
    John Dewey and the Logic of Scientific Inquiry    24
    Economic Theory and Statistics    28
2. Early Monetary Ideas    31
    J. Laurence Laughlin versus the Quantity Theory    33
    Irving Fisher and the Quantity Theory    39
3. War and Reconstruction    46
    War Finance and Monetary Disorder    48
    The Monetary Standard    54
    Why Gold?    57
4. Monetary Management in the Twenties    62
    Index Numbers and Price Stabilization    66
    Production and Speculation    69
    Ralph Hawtrey and the Control of Business Cycles    72
    The Limits of Monetary Policy    77

II    Alvin Harvey Hansen (1887–1975)

5. Intellectual Formation    85
    Money and Technology    92

Continental Business Cycle Theory 96
Money, Income, and Albert Aftalion 99

6. Depression 103
  - Money and Depression* 104
  - The Depression as a Business Cycle* 107
  - Hansen's Monetary Thought* 110
  - Social Control versus Laissez-Faire* 114
7. Stagnation 118
  - The New Frontier* 119
  - Big Government* 123
  - Money and Sound Finance* 126
  - Hansen and Keynes* 130
8. The Golden Age 137
  - The Making of American Keynesianism* 140
  - Keynesianism versus Institutionalism* 146
  - The New Economics and Money* 150
  - The Origin of Monetary Walrasianism* 154

III Edward Stone Shaw (1908–1994)

9. Intellectual Formation 159
  - John B. Canning and Ralph Hawtrey* 166
  - London, Robertson, and Keynes* 169
  - Money in a Theory of Banking* 174
10. From Money to Finance 179
  - Money in a Theory of Finance* 184
  - Finance and U.S. Economic Development* 187
  - A Theory for Policymakers* 192
  - A Theory for Academics* 195
11. Financial Structure and Economic Development 201
  - Financial Deepening* 205
  - A Theory for Policymakers* 211
  - A Theory for Academics* 215

Conclusion 221

Notes 229

Bibliography 245

Index 281