

---

Contents

---

Introduction	xv
Abbreviations Used in the Notes	xxiii

I

From Conformity to Toleration, 1630–1692

1	The Rise of the Antipedobaptists in New England, 1630–1655	3
2	The Arguments for and against Antipedobaptism, 1640–1665	26
3	The First Baptist Church in Boston: Founded 1665	49
4	The Antipedobaptist Efforts for Open Communion, 1665–1682	79
5	Toleration Grudgingly Connived at, 1682–1692	91

II

The Baptists' Efforts for Exemption from Religious Taxes, 1692–1734

6	The Standing Order Codified, 1692–1695	113
7	Successful Baptist Resistance in Swansea, 1692–1725	128
8	Unsuccessful Baptist Resistance in Rehoboth, 1692–1725	149

III

Quaker and Anglican Efforts for Exemption from Religious Taxes, 1692–1734

9	Local Quaker Resistance, 1692–1708	165
---	------------------------------------	-----

Contents

10	Quaker Pressure via England, 1708–1728	182
11	Local Anglican Resistance, 1692–1723	200
12	Anglican Pressure via England, 1723–1727	214
13	The First Laws Exempting Dissenters from Religious Taxation, 1728–1734	225

IV

On the Eve of the Great Awakening

14	Early Dissenters in Connecticut, 1644–1708	247
15	Connecticut Grants Exemption from Religious Taxes, 1708–1735	263
16	Baptist Efforts for “Fraternal Union,” 1710–1742	278
17	The Baptists on the Eve of the Great Awakening, 1720–1740	301

V

The Separate Movement, 1742–1777

18	The Great Awakening, 1735–1765	329
19	The Rise of the Separate Dissenters, 1740–1754	340
20	The Suppression of the Separates, 1740–1770	360
21	Separate Petitions for Religious Liberty, 1745–1760	386
22	Separate Tracts and Pamphlets, 1750–1775	399

VI

The Separate-Baptist Movement, 1740–1770

23	The Rise of the Separate-Baptists, 1740–1765	420
24	The Separate-Baptists Fight for Dissenting Status in Connecticut, 1740–1770	440
25	The Separate-Baptists Fight for Dissenting Status in Massachusetts, 1740–1770	454

Contents

26	The Early Petition Movement of the Separate-Baptists, 1750–1760	477
----	---	-----

VII

The Baptists Organize, Petition, and Face the Revolution, 1763–1776

27	The Founding of a Baptist College and the First Baptist Associations, 1763–1769	491
28	The Separate-Baptists and the Certificate Laws, 1760–1770	512
29	Natural Rights and the Ashfield Case, 1768–1773	531
30	Civil Disobedience and the Appeal to Congress, 1773–1774	547
31	The Baptists and the Revolution: Pietism and Patriotism, 1770–1776	569

VIII

The Baptists Face a New Establishment in Massachusetts, 1778–1800

32	The Baptists and the Constitution of Massachusetts, 1778–1780	591
33	The Debate over the New Definition of an Establishment, 1778–1783	613
34	Test Cases over Article Three, 1782–1810	636
35	Local Compromises over Article Three, 1780–1810	660
36	From Meetinghouse to Town Hall, 1790–1820	685

VOLUME II

IX

The Baptists Confront Pluralism in the New Republic, 1780–1810

37	The Baptists, the Shakers, and the Universalists, 1780–1810	697
----	---	-----

Contents

38	The Methodists, the Freewill Baptists, and the Christ-ians, 1780–1810	723
39	The Baptists' Views on Government, Morality, and Slavery, 1780–1810	751
40	The Baptists' Views on Education, Science, Politics, and National Destiny, 1780–1810	770

X

Disestablishment in Vermont and New Hampshire, 1768–1819

41	Disestablishment in Vermont, 1768–1807	789
42	The Baptists and the Vermont Glebelands, 1790–1820	813
43	Dissent in New Hampshire, 1640–1792	833
44	The Dissenters and the Courts in New Hampshire, 1792–1807	855
45	The Dissenters and the Republican Party in New Hampshire, 1800–1816	877
46	Disestablishment in New Hampshire, 1816–1819	894

XI

Disestablishment in Connecticut, 1776–1818

47	John Leland and the Era of "Modern Liberality" in Connecticut, 1776–1800	915
48	The Decline of the Parish System in Connecticut, 1784–1800	939
49	Expedients to Prop Up the Establishment in Connecticut, 1780–1800	962
50	The Baptist Petition Movement, 1800–1807	985
51	The Dissenters and the Republicans in Connecticut, 1800–1812	1006
52	The Rise of the Toleration Party, 1816–1817	1025
53	Disestablishment in Connecticut, 1817–1818	1043

Contents

XII

The Dissenters and the Jeffersonian Republicans in Massachusetts, 1800–1820

54	James Sullivan and the Republican Party, 1800–1808	1065
55	The Barnes Case and the Religious Liberty Act, 1810– 1817	1084
56	The Baptists Seek Respectability, 1800–1830	1107
57	The Baptists and the Trinitarian-Congregationalists, 1812–1828	1128
58	Political and Sectarian Viewpoints on Disestablishment, 1820	1145
59	The Debate over Article Three in the Constitutional Convention of 1820	1160

XIII

The Final Downfall of the Massachusetts Establishment, 1820–1833

60	The Dedham Case and the Amendment of the Religious Liberty Act, 1821–1824	1189
61	The Trinitarian-Congregationalists Abandon the Establishment, 1824–1830	1207
62	The Universalists and the Eleventh Amendment to the Massachusetts Constitution, 1830–1833	1230
63	The Abolition of Compulsory Religious Taxes in Massachusetts, 1832–1834	1245
64	The Baptists Enter the Mainstream	1263
	Epilogue	1277
	Bibliographical Essay	1285
	Index	1295

