

CONTENTS

PART I

Constants and Variables

1. Perspectives	1
2. Space	7
1. Mexico and Latin America	7
2. Problems of Proximity	10
3. The Geographic Frames	16
3. Ancient Legacies	24
1. Roots	24
2. The Hapsburg Colonial Experiment, 1521-1700	29
3. Enlightenment and Revolt, 1700-1821	34
4. Modern Heritages	39
1. Sovereignty and Nationality	39
2. Experiments, 1824-1853	41
3. Reform and Revived Empire, 1853-1872	44
4. Materialism and Optimism, 1872-1910	51
5. The Revolution, 1910-	56
5. People	58
1. Traits	60
2. Trends	67
3. Culture, Race, and Class	74
6. Many Mexicos	88
1. Localism and Regionalism	88
2. The Core Region	90
3. Marginal Mexicos	97

Contents

PART II

Epic Revolution

7. The Birth of Modern Mexico	113
1. Genesis: The Madero Revolt	113
2. Exodus, 1910-1911	121
3. Madero's Mexico	124
4. The United States and Madero	128
8. New Crusades	135
1. Revived Revolution	135
2. Woodrow Wilson and Mexico	139
3. The Anti-Huerta Crusade	148
4. The Constitutionalist Crusade	151
5. Moral Imperialism and Intervention	155
6. Release	160
9. War and Revolution I	163
1. The Constitution of 1917	165
2. Retreat from Meddling, 1914-1916	171
3. Lull and Storm, 1916-1917	174
4. Wider World Struggles, 1917-1918	183
10. Interwar Epilogues	189
1. Peace?	189
2. The Northern Dynasty	192
3. Normalcy and the Oligarchy	203

PART III

Resurgence and World War II

11. The Cárdenas Upheaval	215
1. Lázaro Cárdenas and Transition	216
2. Organization and Reorganization	220
3. The Reform Surge	224
4. Oil	229
5. Expropriation	234
12. Nationalism, Internationalism, and Oil	239
1. Domestic Responses	239

Contents

2. International Repercussions: Great Britain and Mexico	242
3. International Repercussions: Testing the Good Neighbor	243
4. International Settlements	247
5. The Domestic Postscripts	251
13. World War II	261
1. Preparing for the Storm	262
2. The Road to War	265
3. War Efforts	271
4. The Diplomatic Front and Chapultepec, 1945	278
14. Revolution and World War II	283
1. The Economic Impacts	284
2. The Struggle for Moderation	291
3. The Moderate Revolution	299

PART IV

The Institutional Revolution, 1946-1952

15. The Era of Good Feeling, 1946-1952	307
1. Alemanismo	307
2. Institutional Revolution and Fair Deal	312
3. Ripening Democracy	317
4. Neo-Alemanismo : Adolfo Ruiz Cortines, 1952-1958	328
16. The Economic Revolution	333
1. Profiles	334
2. Government and the Economy	341
3. Capital and Control	345
4. International Patterns	352
17. The Industrial Revolution	360
1. Urban Phases	361
2. Rural Phases	371
3. Prospects and Policy: Papaloapan and the Future	382
18. Mexico and the United States	387
1. Partnership and Problems	387
2. Postwar Hemispheric Order	397
3. World Order	402
4. Retrospect and Prospect	406
Epilogue	408

Contents

Appendix I. Facts about Mexico	433
Appendix II. Suggested Reading	444
Appendix III. A Bibliographical Supplement, 1953-1962	454
Index	474

MAPS

Major Railways and Highways	preceding first page of text
Effect of Rainfall, Large Scale Irrigation, 1950	21
Population, The Core	91
Petroleum	257
Railways	347
Major Hydraulic Developments	375

m e x i c o

