

CONTENTS

Preface / Smaro Kamboureli vii

Acknowledgements xvii

Metamorphoses of a Discipline: Rethinking Canadian Literature
within Institutional Contexts / Diana Brydon 1

Against Institution: Established Law, Custom, or Purpose /
Rinaldo Walcott 17

From Canadian Trance to TransCanada: White Civility to Wry
Civility in the CanLit Project / Daniel Coleman 25

Subtitling CanLit: Keywords / Peter Dickinson 45

Oratory on Oratory / Lee Maracle 55

TransCanada, Literature: No Direction Home / Stephen Slemon 71

World Famous across Canada, or TransNational Localities /
Richard Cavell 85

Diasporic Citizenship: Contradictions and Possibilities for Canadian Literature / Lily Cho 93

Acts of Citizenship: Erin Mouré's O Ciudadán and the Limits of Worldliness / Lianne Moyes 111

Trans-Scan: Globalization, Literary Hemispheric Studies,
Citizenship as Project / Winfried Siemerling 129

Transubracination: How Writers of Colour Became CanLit /
Ashok Mathur 141

Institutional Genealogies in the Global Net of Fundamentalisms,
Families, and Fantasies / Julia Emberley 153

TransCanada Collectives: Social Imagination, the Cunning of Production, and the Multilateral Sublime / Len Findlay 173

Notes 187

Works Cited 199

Contributors 223

Index 227