

Contents

---

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction Christine Kim and Sophie McCall	i
I PRESENT TENSE
Diaspora and Nation in Métis Writing Sophie McCall	21
Canadian Indian Literary Nationalism? Critical Approaches in Canadian Indigenous Contexts—A Collaborative Interlogue Kristina Fagan, Daniel Heath Justice, Keavy Martin, Sam McKegney, Deanna Reder, and Niigaañwewidam James Sinclair	43
Breaking the Framework of Representational Violence: Testimonial Publics, Memorial Arts, and a Critique of Postcolonial Violence (the Pickton Trial) Julia Emberley	65
“Grammars of Exchange”: The “Oriental Woman” in the Global Market Belén Martín-Lucas	83
II PAST PARTICIPLES
Unhomely Moves: A.M. Klein, Jewish Diasporic Difference, Racialization, and Coercive Whiteness Melina Baum Singer	99

Asian Canadian Critical Practice as Commemoration Christopher Lee	119
Diasporic Longings: (Re)Figurations of Home and Homelessness in Richard Wagamese's Work Renate Eigenbrod	135
Afro-Caribbean Writing in Canada and the Politics of Migrant Labour Mobility Jody Mason	153
III FUTURE IMPERFECT
Racialized Diasporas, Entangled Postmemories, and Kyo Maclear's The Letter Opener Christine Kim	171
Underwater Signposts: Richard Fung's Islands and Enabling Nostalgia Lily Cho	191
"Phoenicia ≠ Lebanon": Transsexual Poetics as Poetics of the Body within and across the Nation Alessandra Capperdoni	207
Word Warriors: Indigenous Political Consciousness in Prison Deena Rymhs	229
Works Cited	245
Contributors	265
Index	269