

List of boxes

Concepts and Debates

1	Different welfare regimes	31
2	Key policy debates and themes	33
3	Barriers and enablers to partnership working	89
4	Assets-based approaches	107
5	What is a profession?	129

Facts and Figures

1	Health and social care in numbers	6
2	A very brief history of health and social care	21
3	Key features of health and social care	23
4	Recent history of health and social care	25
5	Health and social care across the UK	28
6	The Structure of Health and Social Care in England	29
7	The UK system in an international context	31
8	Adult social care cuts in numbers	57
9	Financial pressures on the NHS	59
10	Integrated care in the UK and beyond	90
11	NHS staff survey	165
12	Brexit and the international make-up of health and social care staff	174

Key Sources

1	Paying for a care home	64
2	Struggling to achieve 'parity of esteem'	85
3	Reablement 'at a glance'	93

4	Section 1 of the Care Act 2014	103
5	Tackling health inequalities and the social determinants of health	111
6	Protected titles (Health and Care Professions Council)	131
7	Professionalising leadership in the NHS	134
8	The NHS Constitution	138
9	Nursing and Midwifery Council and General Medical Council – Joint statement of professional values	143
10	Working together in new ways/roles	150
11	General management in the NHS	154
12	New models of care	162
13	Learning and development in adult social care	170

Voices of Experience

1	Health and social care in the headlines (2017–18)	3
2	NHS funding in the headlines	40
3	‘The unsuccessful privatisation of social care’	49
4	Personal health budgets	69
5	Care closer to home: the example of district nursing	83
6	The problem of focusing on deficits	106
7	Designing services from dominant perspectives	116
8	Being inspected	136
9	Ethics in practice	141
10	Professional and organisational culture	147
11	Patients, professionals and managers	159
12	Care as emotional labour	168
13	The first NHS baby	180
14	Independent living	181
15	Life before the welfare state	185