

Contents

List of tables and figures	viii
Notes on contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xix
Preface from the series editors	xx
Foreword	xxii
Part I: Introduction
1 An introduction to minimum income standards and reference budgets: international and comparative policy perspectives Christopher Deeming	3
Part II: Case studies
2 From normative budget standards to consensual minimum income standards in the UK Jonathan Bradshaw	27
3 Minimum Essential Standards of Living research in Ireland Bernadette Mac Mahon and Robert Thornton	39
4 The French experience of reference budgets Pierre Concialdi	55
5 Minimum income research in Japan: its development and political implications Aya K. Abe	67
6 Measuring needs and setting standards in Singapore Kok-Hoe Ng, Yu-Wei Neo, Youyenn Teo, Ad Maulod and Yi-Ting Ting	83
7 A South African pilot of the Minimum Income Standards approach Gemma Wright, Matt Padley and Wanga Zembe-Mkabile	97
8 Reference budgets as tools for everyday life, evaluation and policy making in Finland Anna-Riitta Lehtinen and Kristiina Aalto	109
9 Belgian reference budgets for social participation and their use for policy purposes Bérénice Storms	123
10 The development, value and application of budget standards: reflecting on the Australian experience Peter Saunders	139

11	Estimating the cost of raising a child in Catalonia through the reference budgets approach Irene Cussó-Parcerisas, Elena Carrillo Álvarez and Jordi Riera Romani	155
12	Measuring poverty in the Netherlands: the generalised reference budget approach J. Cok Vrooman, Benedikt Goderis, Stella Hoff and Bart van Hulst	169
13	The Norwegian reference budget Marthe Hårvik Austgulen and Elling Borgeraas	185
14	Minimum budgets for Danish families Jens Bonke and Anders Eiler Wiese Christensen	197
15	The Swedish Consumer Agency's calculations of reference values for some of the most common household expense categories Malin Lindquist Skogar and Ingrid Eriksson	207
Part III: Cross-national and comparative perspectives
16	The Slovenian experience with three methods for defining the minimum income Nada Stropnik	227
17	Applying the Minimum Income Standard in diverse national contexts Matt Padley and Abigail Davis	241
18	The steep and winding road to comparable reference budgets in Europe Tim Goedemé	255
19	Adequate income in Portugal: a comparison of two estimation methods José A. Pereirinha, Elvira Pereira, Francisco Branco, Dália Costa and Maria Inês Amaro	271
Part IV: Policy and practice
20	Basic needs budgets in policy and practice Gordon M. Fisher	291
21	Establishing a national standard: the role of the UK's Minimum Income Standard in policy and practice Donald Hirsch	307
22	Minimum Income Standards in the Basic Income debate Malcolm Torry	319

Contents

Part V: Conclusions

23	Minimum income standards and reference budgets: past, present, future? Christopher Deeming	333
----	---	-----

Index		345
-------	--	-----