

Contents

List of figures and tables	v
Notes on contributors	vi
Introduction	1
Ekaterina Domorenok, Paolo Graziano and Katharina Zimmermann
PART I Normative and theoretical perspectives	7
1 Eco-social policies for planetary well-being	11
Tuuli Hirvilammi and Teea Kortetmäki
2 Wealth and income maxima for sustainable welfare: ecological reasons for economic limitarianism	24
Katharina Bohnenberger
3 Sustainable welfare as a new paradigm in social policy	38
Martin Fritz, Kajsa Emilsson and Jayeon Lee
4 The growth-independent welfare state	54
Laua Wiman, Raphael Kaufmann, Katharina Bohnenberger and Steffen Lange
5 When the lifeworld colonises the system: the uncertain political prospects of eco-social transitions	69
Daniel Hausknost
6 Conceptualising consensus: constitutive elements of a political sociology of eco-social contestation and conflict	82
Vincent Gengnagel
PART II Eco-social politics	93
7 European trade unions and the eco-social nexus	95
Bianca Luna Fabris and Philippe Pochet
8 Politics, environment and justice in the European Union	108
Jan Pollex
9 Public support for eco-social policies: insights from focus group studies in Germany and Italy	123
Adeline Otto, Dimitri Gugushvili, Katharina Zimmermann, Vincent Gengnagel and Benedetta Cotta
10 Public participation in eco-social policies: exploring mechanisms for bridging the gap	138
Nicolas W. Jager and Benedetta Cotta
11 Social movements and eco-social transition	153
Katrin Uba

PART III	Eco-social policies	167
12	Proposals for sustainable welfare policies Milena Büchs	169
13	Eco-social food policy design: getting food systems inside the doughnut Jeroen Candel	181
14	Combating residential energy poverty in existing dwellings: eco-social policies and sustainable welfare in Denmark and Ireland Nessa Winston, Jesper Ole Jensen and Orla Dingley	196
15	Synergies and trade-offs between social and green public procurement Miriam Hartlapp	210
16	The European Green Deal and the gradual emergence of an EU framework for a just transition Sebastiano Sabato	227
17	Implementing just transition efforts across the EU: from decarbonisation to eco-social policies Matteo Mandelli	240
PART IV	The eco-social nexus from a global perspective	255
18	The eco-social nexus in urban climate transitions Jeroen van der Heijden	257
19	Just transitions in climate and sustainable governance: a perspective from the South Xira Ruiz-Campillo	270
20	Eco-social policy in the liberal world of welfare: the institutional opportunities for socio-ecological transitions in Anglo-Saxon regimes Paul Bridgen	283
21	International organisations in the eco-social transformation: strategies, policies and programmes Luca Cigna, Torben Fischer, Emina Hasanagic Abuannab, Elke Heins and Philip Rathgeb	297
	Conclusions Katharina Zimmermann, Paolo Graziano and Ekaterina Domorenok	312
	Index	314