

Contents

| | |
|--|---|
| List of figures and tables | xi |
| Notes on contributors | xii |
| Introduction | 1 |
| Edgar Marthinsen, Sara Serbati and Brid Featherstone | |
| PART I Sense and Sensibility as epistemology for social work | |
| 1 | Reflections on the possibilities and challenges offered by a social model of protecting children Brid Featherstone, Anna Gupta and Kate Morris |
| 19 | |
| 2 | The virtuous cycle of using supportive measures to reduce red tape and meet families' needs Edgar Marthinsen |
| 35 | |
| 3 | The potential of practice research to advance a framework for protective support and supportive protection (PS-SP) with children, young people and families Carmel Devaney and Caroline McGregor |
| 51 | |
| 4 | Rethinking the concept of institutionalisation in child protection Francesca Maci and Paola Milani |
| 69 | |
| PART II Sense and Sensibility as practice | |
| 5 | Towards a collaborative and innovative practice improvement paradigm in child protection? Päivi Petrelius, Laura Yliruka and Kaarina Mönkkönen |
| 93 | |
| 6 | Participative and Transformative Evaluation: children, families and practitioners as co-researchers through 'reflective thinking' processes Sara Serbati |
| 114 | |
| 7 | Community mapping as a participative tool to enhance informal social support: possible pathways for practitioners Andrea Petrella |
| 134 | |
| 8 | The training of trainers as a way to share sense and sensibility in the P.I.P.P.I. programme Marco Ius |
| 156 | |
| 9 | Care leavers in the Italian child protection system: from action research to advocacy of more inclusive policies and relationships Federico Zullo, Martina Sabetta, Samanta Ferri and Diletta Mauri |
| 174 | |
| 10 | A mind for learning and innovation Edgar Marthinsen, Lena A. Ulfseth, Anne Moe and Willy Lichtwarck |
| 191 | |

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 11 | Communication as the backbone of intervention with group programmes in the child protection system: exploring challenges and tools Nuria Fuentes-Peláez, Sara Pérez-Hernando, Judit Rabassa, Belén Parra, Gemma Crous and Paulo Padilla-Petry | 214 |
| | Epilogue Edgar Marthinsen, Sara Serbati and Brid Featherstone | 231 |
| | Index | 234 |