

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	v
Notes on Contributors	vi
1 Introduction: Everyday Life in (Post-)Neoliberal Latin America	1
Daniel Nehring, Gerardo Gómez Michel and Magdalena López
2 Imaginaries, Sociability and Cultural Patterns in the Post-Neoliberal Era: A Glance at the Argentinean, Paraguayan, and Venezuelan Experiences	21
Miguel Ángel Contreras Natera
3 Making Neoliberal Selves: Popular Psychology in Contemporary Mexico	47
Daniel Nehring
4 From Uribe's "Democratic Security" to Santo's Peace Accords with the FARC: Hate, Fear, Hope and other Emotions in Contemporary Colombian Politics	71
Fabio López de la Roche
5 Cine Bajo Tierra: Ecuador's Booming Underground Cinema in the Aftermath of the Neoliberal Era	93
Rafael Ponce-Cordero
6 Neoliberalising Humanity: Culture and Popular Participation in the Case of the Street Market of Caruaru, Brazil	115
Adilson Silva Ferraz
7 The Contribution of the Catholic Magazine Espacio Laical and the Constitution to the Cuban Public Sphere	135
Alexei Padilla Herrera and Armando Chaguaceda Noriega
8 Argentina: The Philosophical Resistance to the Conquest of the Soul	159
Enrique Del Percio

9	Fleeing (Post-)Chávez Memories: The 1990s and the Black Friday Generation Magdalena López	177
10	Re-imagined Community: The Mapuche Nation in Neoliberal Chile Gerardo Gómez Michel	195
11	Neoliberalism and the Negotiation of the American Dream in Contemporary Latina Narratives Jenifer A. Skolnick and Emmanuel Alvarado	221
12	Bare Life in Contemporary Mexico: Everyday Violence and Folk Saints Jungwon Park	243
	Index	261