

Contents

Preface / vii

Acknowledgments / xi

- 1 Globalization, Autonomy, and Community / 1
Diana Brydon and William D. Coleman

Part 1: Global Capitalism and Community Renewal

- 2 Globalism, Primitive Accumulation, and Nishnawbe Aski Territory:
The Strategic Denial of Place-Based Community / 31
Wendy Russell
- 3 Twentieth-Century Transformations of Native Identity, Citizenship,
Power, and Authority / 47
Richard J. "Dick" Preston
- 4 Reaffirming "Community" in the Context of Community-Based Conservation / 66
Monica E. Mulrennan
- 5 The Moral Economy of Global Forestry in Rural British Columbia / 83
Scott Prudham

- 6 From Servitude to Dignity? A Community in Transition / 103
Amanda White
- 7 Community without Status: Non-Status Migrants and Cities of Refuge / 123
Peter Nyers

Part 2: Building Transnational Communities

- 8 Transnational Women's Groups and Social Policy Activists around the UN and the EU / 141
Michael Webb and Patricia T. Young
- 9 Labour, Globalization, and the Attempt to Build Transnational Community / 164
Robert O'Brien
- 10 Transnational Transformation: Cyberactivism and the Palestinian
Right of Return / 183
Jasmin Habib
- 11 The Tensions of Global Imperial Community: Canada's Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire (IODE) / 201
Jessica Schagerl
- 12 Development Workers, Transcultural Interactions, and Imperial Relations in Northern Pakistan / 216
Nancy Cook
- 13 The Brotherhood of the Rope: Commodification and Contradiction in the "Mountaineering Community" / 234
Stephen Slemon
- 14 Why Community Matters / 246
Diana Brydon

Abbreviations / 261

Notes and Acknowledgments / 264

Works Cited / 273

Contributors / 296

Index / 299