

Contents

Illustrations / vii

Acknowledgments / ix

Abbreviations / x

Introduction – Opening Pandora’s Bauxite: A Raw Materials
Perspective on Globalization Processes in the Twentieth Century / 1

MATS INGULSTAD, ESPEN STORLI, AND ROBIN S. GENDRON

1 The Global Race for Bauxite, 1900-40 / 24

ESPEN STORLI

2 “Of the Highest Imperial Importance”: British Strategic Priorities and the Politics of Colonial Bauxite, ca. 1916–ca. 1958 / 53

ANDREW PERCHARD

3 Nazi Germany’s Pursuit of Bauxite and Alumina / 79

HANS OTTO FRØLAND

4 National Security Business? The United States and the Creation of the Jamaican Bauxite Industry / 107

MATS INGULSTAD

- 5 The Soviet Union's "Bauxite Problem" / 138
STEPHEN FORTESCUE
- 6 "Greece Has Been Endowed by Nature with This Precious Material": The Economic History of Bauxite in the European Periphery, 1920s-70s / 158
LEDA PAPASTEFANAKI
- 7 The Volta River Project and Decolonization, 1945-57: The Rise and Fall of an Integrated Aluminum Project / 185
JON OLAV HOVE
- 8 Canada and the Nationalization of Alcan's Bauxite Operations in Guinea and Guyana / 211
ROBIN S. GENDRON
- 9 Transnational Restructuring and the Jamaican Bauxite Industry: The Swinging Pendulum of Bargaining Power / 238
LOU ANNE BARCLAY AND NORMAN GIRVAN
- 10 Issues of Governance, Liberalization, Policy Space, and the Challenges of Development: Reflections from the Guinean Bauxite-Aluminum Sector / 268
BONNIE CAMPBELL
- 11 White Metal: Bauxite, Labour, and the Land under Alcan in Twentieth-Century Guyana, Jamaica, and Australia / 302
BRADLEY CROSS
- 12 Battles over Bauxite in East India: The Khondalite Mountains of Khondistan / 328
SAMARENDRA DAS AND FELIX PADEL
- 13 Success without Bauxite: Norsk Hydro's Long Wait to Achieve Backward Integration / 353
PÅL THONSTAD SANDVIK
- Contributors / 373
- Index / 378